FOREWORD

In this volume of the SNIPS AND CUTS we have striven to portray life at Central High as vividly as possible, both to our fellow classmates and to those who do not intimately know the life of this school. Due to the fact that we have had only a limited supply of money to use in publishing this annual, we have not been able to place in your hands as elaborate a book as we should like, but with the finances with which we have had to work, we have attempted to place in your hands as interesting a book as possible.

We wish to thank every one for the help that he has given us in making possible this remembrance of our glorious high school days. Some have helped us with their advice, which was very precious to the editorial department, while others have helped us with their finances, which was invaluable to the management. Many have helped in getting the copies to the press; this also was an extremely great aid to all of us.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS OF NORTH CAROLINA

We, the entire student body, affectionately dedicate this volume of the SNIPS AND CUTS

TO

Coach Charles Dickerson Kirkpatrick and the Football Team of 1923

By winning the State Championship, Coach and his team have set an example for the future athletes of Charlotte, in clean sportsmanship and in the fighting spirit, both of which will win not only in the game of football, but also in the one great game—the game of life.

MASCOTS

THOMAS C. HAYES, JR.

Tommy is a darling little boy of four and a half years. He has wonderful blue eyes and an angelic smile. He is a real boy, however, and quite captivated the Seniors with the way he could box. Nothing ever frightens him and wherever he goes he always feels at home. Tommy is real smart, too, and when he is once told your name, he can be depended on to remember it. We are very proud to have such an attractive little boy for our mascot.

MAUJER MOSELEY

Maujer is the cutest, chubbiest little girl imaginable! Words simply won't describe her lovely curls, much less her big blue eyes and long lashes. To look at her one would think she had come from Kewpie-land to be the Seniors' mascot. She's very real, however, and readily makes friends. She has exactly the right amount of sweetness and mischievousness combined with her many talents, and so much sense that it's really amazing. She loves to sing and even the largest audiences fail to frighten her. In all she's so adorable that you just long to hug her! We were so busy describing her charms that we almost forgot to say that she's four years old.

CLARA MELLE ABERCROMBIE

"Trixie"

"There's nothing she does or says but smacks of something greater than herself."

"Trixie," as she is generally known among her classmates, came to us from Laurens, South Carolina. She is fond of all her lessons, especially Virgil. She is a good sport, excellent student and a pal to every one. Here's wishing her the best success ever.

MARY JUANITA ALEXANDER

"Nita"

Girls' High School Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Home Economics Club, 4; Choral Club, 2; Hiking Club, 2.

"To know her is to love her."

"Nita" is full of pep, always ready with a helping hand, a bright merry smile, and a cheery word. She is the personification of good nature and a friend to all. "Nita" also has a full store of sympathy, and sympathy is said to be the key that unlocks every heart.

JOHN ORR ALLISON

Naturalists' Club, 2; Literary Society, 1.

"But if the while I think on thee, Dear Friend,
All losses are restored and losses end."

Need I say more when these lines convey all my thoughts? One can never have a truer friend. John is an ideal student—always studying—and when one needs help he can sure get it here. It will truly be a sore loss to the school when John is gone because there will be no one to win all the essay prizes.

LOIS HAYNES ANDERSON

North Charlotte High School, 1, 2, 3; Latin Club, 4.

"She's loving and kind,
She's generous and true,
She's one of the kind
That knows a lot too."

Lois is a girl that attracts all who meet her and after you have met her you just can't help but love her. Lois can always be depended on and she is willing to help any one she can at any time. She is full of fun, wit, and sound sense.

GRACE ANTHONY

"Gracious—me."

Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Secretary Girls' High School Club, 3; Ukulele Club, 2; Home Economics Club, 4.

"There is no limit to a real friend's value."

It's hard to decide whether wholesome or sweet is the correct term to apply to Grace, but we'll just tell you the kind of person she is and let you decide for yourself. She's very quiet until you know her real well and then she's the most companionable person you've ever seen—a person who can understand when you tell her things.

Grace has set her heart on being a missionary of some type. We are all sure that if she does fulfil her desire she will be a good one.

HATTYE LEE ASHCRAFT

"Just Hattie Lee"

Albemarle Normal and Industrial Institute, 1; Literary Society, 1; Missionary Band, 1; Basketball Club, 1; Selma High School, 2, 3; Literary Society, 2, 3; French Club, 2, 3; Charlotte High School, 4; Salesmanship Club, 4.

"A friendly word maketh glad the heart."

When you say a "good scout" and mean every single syllable of it, that's a good description of Hattie Lee. A good all-round student, she gets excellent marks—even on chemistry. She has that rare quality of making friends easily, and when she has made you one of her friends, you may count on her sticking by you. Hattie Lee possesses a sweet disposition and she brightens the corner wherever she happens to be.

VERNON W. AUSBAND

Declamation and Debating Club, 2; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Baseball, 1, 2, 3; Letter Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Advertising Manager, Associate Editor Rambler, 3; Varsity Football, 2, 3, 4; Captain, 4; Manager of Baseball, 4.

"Never let your studies interfere.
With your school life."

From the day that Vernon came among us he has been liked by every one. And we feel that when without all of his other traits, his wonderful personality will win him a place in the world. He deserves no little credit for the way in which he guided us to the State Championship in football in the Fall of '23. One and all, we wish to express our gratitude to him.

MARY GWYN BARNHARDT

"Amelia Grant"

Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Choral Club, 2; Mele Club, 4.

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

Mary Gwyn has an all-time, never-fail, ever-ready smile that keeps her face constantly beaming and so helps make the rest of mankind feel a little better. It is often said that companionship directly influences our lives, and this is true when Mary Gwyn is around, because her sunny disposition radiates good cheer and happiness to all her friends. Mary Gwyn not only excels in popularity and good cheer but also in her school work, and this goes to make her an all-round, popular, congenial, and influential girl.

JOHN JACOB BARRIER

"Dray"

Tar Heel Literary Society, 1; Newspaper and Magazine Club, 1; Naturalists' Club, 2; Varsity Football, 3, 4; Letter Club, 3, 4; Photography Club, 4; Baseball Squad, 3.

"And fools, who came to scoff, remained to praise."

During a football practice in the season of 1921 the coach was overheard to say of John, "That boy runs like a dray horse." From that day to this "Dray" has been his nickname. Dray, regardless of his name, has worked hard, in all his student activities and has become one of the foremost in the class. Dray is a friend to every one always willing to aid you, but, yet, if you are not keen he will play a joke on you, for this is what he enjoys most.

TED BENNICK

"Ted"

Advocate Staff, 2; Literary Society.

"The scholar's learning with the courtier's ease."

Ted is one of the most likeable boys in Charlotte High School. He is always smiling, and he takes things easy. When he works, he puts his whole heart and soul into it and never complains. He always has a joke to tell, and we are sure that he would make a fine jester for a king. So, Ted, here's wishing for you, a great success out in life's way.

KATHARINE MONTGOMERY BEST

"Kat"

Secretary Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Freshman and Sophomore Dramatic Clubs, 2.

"She's petite, witty, and pretty, too,
And we wouldn't swap her for fifty like you."

Everyone knows "Kat." After you have once met her, Katharine has such a lovable disposition—except when she's in Geometry. Her hair is as black as the raven's wing, her eyes are patches of blue from the sky. Here's to you "Kat!" We wish you all the luck in the world.

FRANCES BOBBITT

"Bobbitt"

Statesville High School, 1, 2; Latin Club, 4.

"When love and lessons come together, Let love go; for it'll be better."

We were so glad when "Bobbitt" came to our high school from Statesville High, for in her we find the three greatest qualities—unselfishness, perseverance, and brotherly love. She is good in all her lessons and excels in Spanish. She's the kind who doesn't toot her own horn. We learn much from her example and she leads us on in the right way. These few lines will help us to remember her:

Frances is one who is kind and true,
One who is always a friend to you,
One who does the best things, too,
And she's a girl that is hated by few.

STELLA C. J. BOGER

"Blondie"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; V II Club, 2; Home Economics Club, 4; Latin Club, 4; Tar Heel Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 2.

"Not too quiet, not too gay,
But loyal and true in every way."

Stella is a true and noble friend to every one. She is a good worker and has a mind willing to help others. She is interested in everything that is going on around her and will long be remembered by all who know her.

RUTH KERR BOWDEN

"Rooster"

Astronomy Club, 2; Latin Club, 4.

"With gentle yet prevailing force, Intent upon her destined course."

Ruth's abilities are numerous. One would have to go far to find a truer, better friend. She is one of the few who prepares her daily lessons on the principle that it is better to have work well done than to follow the method of just "getting by." Her determination will certainly bring her success.

JOHN LYLES BOYD

Kodak Club, 2; Naturalist Club, 2; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Association, 2; Cafeteria Squad, 4; Debating Society, 4; Secretary and Treasurer Hi-Y, 4; High School Orchestra, 4; Glee Club, 2.

"May success in its best,
In the years yet to pass
Be the reward of Lyles,
Of the '24 Class."

Lyles is a boy whom anyone would be proud to call his friend. When in the years yet to come, we think of the old class of '24 we'll all think of Lyles. Lyles was faithful and true; he would do you a favor for the asking. He was always a leader in the class room as well as out of school. We all wish Lyles good luck as he treads on life's highway.

JOHN MASON BOYCE

"Wildhair"

Polkton High School, 1, 2, 3.

John is all right especially when he is thinking about girls, for those rosy cheeks of his attract them all. Not only is he attractive in looks, but also in personality. We would say in summarizing his good traits that he is just a fine all-round boy.

Trips and Cuts of 'XXIV'

WALLACE BROWN BRADFORD

Literary Society, 1; Astronomy Club, 2; Newspaper and Magazine Club, 2; Athletic Association, 2; Naturalist Club, 2; Phi Lambda Chi, 4; Basketball Squad, 4; Cafeteria Squad, 4; Senior Photography Club, 4; Rambler Staff, 4; Hi-Y, 4.

"Mirth, with thee I mean to live."

"Brownie," as he is affectionately dubbed by his host of friends, has achieved great success in his high school career. He has had a great part in making the Rambler a success. "Brownie" is one of the class's best scholars. Though small of stature, he is a good basketball and tennis player. We look for great things from "Brownie" at Davidson. Here's to you, old boy!

SARA BRADY

"Sara"

"Her gentle speech and modest ways lead others to account her praise."

She's dependable and capable and—red-headed—and that's saying a whole lot. Knowing you as we do we know that we are leaving one of the best pals we've ever known. She believes in having fun and is full o' pep and has many lasting friends in C. H. S.

ANNIE BELL BRANTLEY

"Annie Bell"

Freshman Club, 1; Modern Drama, 2; Literary Society, 2; Home Economics Club, 4.

"In her tongue is the law of kindness."

We are certainly glad that we can claim Annie Bell as one of our classmates. Although she is quiet, she is kind. It is characteristic of her to be always cheerful and happy, except when pondering over French or English. Here's to Anne Bell a life of joy and happiness such as she had in her golden school-days.

MAMIE LOUISE BRUNS

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Choral Club, 3; Literary Society, 1; Secretary and Treasurer of Senior Class, last semester, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2.

"Her sunshine hair and eyes of blue Clothe a nature loyal and true."

Mamie is the fine type of girl who is a friend to all. She is known and loved by everyone because of her kind and sweet disposition. She is serious and jolly, and has the happy faculty of knowing just when to be jolly and when to be serious. We hope that Mamie will make as many friends all through life as she has made in high school.

HAROLD TILTON BUCK

"Buck"

Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Vice-President Junior Class; Class Baseball, 2; Class Basketball, 2, 3; Basketball Squad, 4; Track Team, 3, 4; Marshal, 3; President Home Room, 4; Kodak Club, 2; Hi-Y Basketball, 4.

"Here is a friend, true and tried,
A leader frank and bold."

Harold is a boy of sterling qualities, and is very popular with his classmates. He is smart, witty, and dependable—such a trio of good traits! Don't let's forget the good looks (?). He's "shickingly" good-looking.

CHARLES BUNCH

Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Magazine Club, 2; Glee Club; Debating Club, 4.

"True to his word, and his work, and his friends."

Charles always greets you with a smile. He stands well in his class and is admired for his good qualities. We are sure he will achieve great success at Carolina and will be admired and liked there as he is here.

PHILIP FRENCH BURNHAM

"Peewee"

Naturalist Club, 1; Phi Lambda Chi, 3, 4; Treasurer, 4; Vice-President Pi Pa Ki, 4; President Senior Photography Club, 4.

"Who mixed reason with pleasure and wisdom with mirth."

Peewee is sort of a Jack-of-all-trades; he plays a little football, goes out for track, acts a little, studies a little, and like all "Jacks of all Trades" he isn't especially good at any. He's just sort of a happy medium. He always has something witty and worth while to say. His indifference and sarcasm are the sort that please.

LEWIS CARTER BURWELL

"Squeak"

Tar Heel Literary Society, 1; Freshman Basketball, 1; Al-gra-hy Staff, 1; President Kodak Club, 2; Varsity Baseball, 2; Glee Club, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Cafeteria Squad, 4; Annual Staff, 4; Secretary Latin Club, 4; Track, 4.

"Brave, Good, and true,
I see him stand before me now."

That's just what he is—brave, good, and true. "Squeak" is one of our most popular boys. In work or in play he is influential in school and is looked up to by all. If "Squeak" is mischievous, it is harmless mischief and is only done through the exuberance of his soul. My advice to anyone in trouble is to turn to "Squeak." He's always here in a pinch. Old Charlotte High certainly loses a valuable article when she loses him.

MARY BYRD

"Bird"

"What love I bore to thee."

"Bird" as she is known by her classmates came to us from Kershaw, South Carolina. Kershaw is responsible for this brilliant young girl, full of energy and ambition. We are sure that she will be a highly educated girl some day, if her desires are fulfilled. "Bird" is very fond of geometry and makes it her daily task to draw circles and construct triangles. Her sweet disposition and her kind words influence all who come into contact with her.

KATE PIERSON CALDWELL

Freshman Club, 1; Chairman Finance Committee of Girls' Club, 3; President Girls' Club, 4; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4; Home Economics, 4; Marshal, 3; Modern Drama Club, 2; Washington Irvin Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 1, 2.

"Not too quiet, not too gay,
But loyal and true in every way."

As a true friend, Kate has no equal. She is always jolly and ready for a good time, but is never too busy to lend a helping hand. Her sweet friendly disposition has won for her many friends throughout the whole high school.

MARGARET CARROL

"Peggy"

Freshman Club, 1; Athletic Association, 2; V II Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Literary Society, 1.

"It's nice to be natural, if you are naturally nice."

Margaret is the type of girl who is never fully appreciated until she is known intimately. She is a dandy sport, and a sweeter, truer, girl you'll never find. She is the jolliest, best-natured kind of a girl, and you never see her without a smile or when she isn't cheerful. We hope that she may have the same success in college that she has had in high school.

EDNAH THAMES CARSON

"Hic"

Asheboro High School, 1, 2; Girls' High School Club, 3; U. F. E., 4.

"Mindful not of herself, but always thoughtful of others."

Ednah is just the kind of true friend any boy or girl wants. "Hic" is always thoughtful of others and sweet and unselfish. She is peppy and full of life and always has a joke to tell you. Her favorite occupation is tripping people in the hall. We don't know what we would have done if "Hic" had decided to go to school in Asheboro instead of in Charlotte this winter. No one in the school has more friends than "Hic"; she makes friends easily wherever she goes. No one could stay around her long and not love her.

Snips and Cuts of 'XXIV

NARIETTA CHEATHAM

"Rita"

Girls' High School Club, 3; Basketball Club, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Home Economics Club, 1; High School Orchestra, 1.

"It's the songs ye sing and the smiles ye wear That's a-making sunshine everywhere."

Narietta is one who has the happy faculty of always being the same whether it rains or shines. Her smiling countenance and easy manners have won for her the highest esteem of all those who know her. She is very studious, but fully enjoys all leisure moments. Playing the violin and piano are among her many accomplishments. Her sincerity and sweet disposition will strew her path, as well as that of others, with roses all the way.

ALLAN SIMPSON CHRISMAN

"Cris"

Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Kodak Club, 2; Cross-Country Club, 2; Athletic Association, 2, 3; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Class President, 3; Student Council, 3; Charman Scholarship Committee, 3; Chief Marshal, 3; President Hi-Y Club, 4; Boys' Cabinet, 4; Snips and Cuts Staff, 4; Ring Committee, 4; Track Squad, 4.

"He's a friend who's loyal and true,
A leader frank and bold."

Allan or "Cris," as he is affectionately known, can be seen here, there, and everywhere about the school. It is needless to say that he is popular, for his interest in the activities of the school as well as his ready sense of humor make him loved by all. Allan is always ready to lend a helping hand toward any movement in the interest of the school. Here's to your future, old boy, and may your outlook be as bright and cheerful as your past has been.

HERMAN JAMES CLONTZ

Salisbury High School, 1, 2; Varsity Baseball, 3, 4; Athletic Association, 3; Letter Club, 3, 4; Naturalist Club, 3.

"Nothing great was ever accomplished without enthusiasm."

Herman, better known to his friends as "Flopp," came to us from Salisbury High. He is an athlete of note, especially in baseball, where he is our most reliable and consistent pitcher. As a student he believes a thing worth doing is worth doing well, and applies himself thusly. During his two years here he has acquired many friends through his sincerity and honesty, who are depending on him to succeed in life as well as he has in his school activities.

MARGARET COCHRANE

"Maggie"

Sewing Club, 1.

"A little maid, demure and sweet."

Margaret is one of the sweetest "little girls" in our class. She has a kind, generous heart and is always ready to share your pleasures and difficulties (especially if you take geometry). Even though she seems to be a quiet, dignified Senior, she is really as mischievous and full of pep as any freshman. Besides having a charming personality she has a brilliant mentality. We all dread "the parting of ways," especially since we must leave such friends as Margaret behind.

IDA REID COHEN

Girls' High School Club, 2; Home Economics Club, 1; Girls' Hiking Club, 1.

"I love quiet, solitude and such society
As is quiet, nice and good."

Always the same demure Ida Reid, smart and faithful in the class-room who, when once a friend, proves to be valuable, true, and sincere. She is very energetic and industrious, never shirking her work until finished. Then she finds time for indulging in such sports, as swimming and skating of which she is very fond. In domestic ability she is a genius, as to making "candy" and sewing she seems to excel all.

JESSIE LOUISE COOK

"Peggy"

Campfire Club, 2; Latin Club, 4.

"Love to one, friendship to a few and good will to all."

To know Louise is to know a girl who always comes to school with lessons prepared, who stands up for what she thinks, and who sticks to her opinion. To be one of the favored "few" of that friendship is a privilege not to be soon forgotten, for Louise makes a good friend, true in word and act. And then Louise has no hard feeling against anyone. She is most democratic. Everyone has the same privilege as she. In this fact she has a strong belief.

SARAH CRUMP COUCH

"Crump"

Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Modern Drama Club, 2; Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Chairman Athletic Committee of Girls' High School Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 4; Latin Club, 4; Rambler Staff, 3, 4; Annual Staff, 4; Letter Club, 4; Vice-President Class, First Semester, 4; Captain Girls' Basketball Team, 4.

"As fair as Helen of old,
As great as Caesar, I'm told,
And Plato's brain
Goes under a strain

As she knocks the rest of us cold."

Here's to "Crump," pretty, bright, attractive, capable, and loyal. She's very athletic, too. In fact, she's just what she was voted—an all-round girl. From her many honors you can easily see that she has taken part in all phases of high school life.

THOMAS MOORE CRAIG

"Tommy"

Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Naturalist Club, 2; Chemistry Club, 4; Radio Club, 3; Secretary and Treasurer Hi-Y, 2; Y. M. C. A. Cabinet, 2, 3; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Home Room President, 2, 5; Class Lawyer, 5; Al-gra-hy Staff, 2; Advocate Staff, 3; Rambler Staff, 4; Editor Rambler, 5; Literary Society, 2; Vice-President Literary Society, 2; Student Council, 2, 4, 5; Junior Red Cross Council, 2, 4.

"A heart to resolve, a head to contrive, a hand to execute."

Of the many leaders in high school life and activity "Tommy" has become most prominent. An attractive personality, coupled with the ability for leadership in all activities, make him a valuable boy. He is into everything in school and his influence is always for the right. Everyone knows him and we feel he will do well in college and in after life.

WINNIE MAE CRAVER

"Weenie"

Freshman Club, 1; Literary Society, 2; Choral Club, 3; Girls' High School Club, 4.

"When joy and duty clash,
Let duty go to smash."

She possesses a smile, pep and personality: what more could you wish? Winnie is known for her chewing gum and her squeals. If anything exciting happens, "Weenie" must give a piercing little shriek, and usually a pinch to the nearest person. She is glad this is Leap Year, for she likes the idea of "Chasing" the boys. Her favorite expression is "Oh, I got a letter from W. and L." She is always ready for fun, and to find a better pal for a lark of any kind, you will have to travel far.

MARTIN PHIFER CRAWFORD

President Hi-Y, 3; Hi-Y, 4; Secretary and Treasurer Kodak Club, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Latin Club, 4.

"Few things are impossible, to diligence and skill."

"Martin" is one of the shining lights in high school. When there is anything to be done he is always ready to put all the pep and enthusiasm he has into it. He is a real good student and we understand a real good ladies' man. He possesses qualities most enviable which make him a boy of true worth.

MILDRED CRAYTON

"Chigger"

Girls' High School Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Choral Club, 2; Literary Society, 1; Home Economics Club, 4.

"As pure and sweet, her fair brow seemed eternal as the sky,

And like the brook's low song, her voice a sound which could not die."

Mildred is sweetness, freshness and jollity personified. If you ever get blue or irritated, go to Mildred and you cannot help having your disposition changed, for the better. She's like an ice cold, refreshing drink on a hot summer's day. She has no enemies. No one could keep from loving her. Her ready smile makes her welcomed anywhere she may choose to go. Besides her wonderful disposition, she is smart, plays the piano, and has a beautiful voice.

HUELING DAVIS

"Hueling"

Lone Pine Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Naturalist Club, 2; Kodak Club, 2; Vice-President Class, 2; Sigma Delta, 2, 3; Hi-Y Club, 4; Cafeteria Squad, 4.

"Do unto others as you would that they should do unto you."

No personality ever embodied the elements of the "Golden Rule" to a greater extent than Hueling's. Sincere, open-minded, generous to a fault, he has won the admiration of his friends and the respect of his enemies. With a smile as a pass word, he took an active part in student activities, carving a niche of popularity for himself that will weather the storm of time. C. H. S. has been bettered by having had him.

JAMES DEAL

"Deal"

Mount Pleasant High School of Tennessee, 1, 2, 3;
Phi Lambda Chi; Chemistry Club, 4.

"Oh, he may be a rotten Sheik,
Because with girls he's not a shriek,
But when it comes to using his bean,
Well, a brainer vegetable never was seen."

"Deal" was in C. H. S. only during his Senior year. In his former school—Mount Pleasant in Tennessee—his record is unexcelled. This young man's record speaks for him and in doing so certainly indicates that James is a true gentleman and a boy of irreproachable character.

FLORA MITCHELL DE PASS

"Flo"

Athletic Association; Junior Library Committee;
Freshman Club; High School Club; Dramatic Club;
Washington Literary Society; Girls' Reserve.

"Her smile is just like sunshine
It brightens all our lives."

We have been fortunate in having "Flo" with us during her four years of high school. Her hobby is painting, but this is not her only art, for she has the ability to make friends easily and has a most winning personality. "Flo" does not make her life gloomy by studying all the time but she manages to do her work well. She is always faithful and sincere to her work and friends.

MAY ROCKWOOD DEVLIN

"Rocksie"

"Of the wide world I stand alone and think Till I love and fame does sink."

Surely there cannot be a more friendly girl than "Rocksie." She always wears a smile—even when she has to admit that again she was tardy. History is her favorite study and she excels in it. She is companionable, jolly and true-hearted.

EDWIN HARRISON DIXON

"Ed"

Astronomy Club, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2.

We find ourselves refreshed by the presence of cheerful people; even so with Ed. He is one of our quiet, meditative classmates, always ready with a helping hand, giving us a bright, merry smile and cheery word. He is generally trying to have some fun when he is not dreaming.

WALTER R. DIXON, JR.

"Bones"

Boys' High School, Atlanta, Ga.

"A comrade blithe and full of glee
Who dares to laugh out loud once free."

Three long years we have struggled along our high-way, adding and subtracting in number. At last our Senior year dawned and we were fortunate enough to have "Bones" join our ranks. Here's to "Bones," our splendid old scout.

ELINOR BAIRD DUDLEY

Detroit High School, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Debating Society, 3; Skinny Club, 4.

"She is jolly, good-natured and true,
And her share she is willing to do."

Fun, smiles, pep, a sweet disposition, and full of mischief, is "Eleanor." She blew into our midst two years ago from Detroit and since being here she has added much enjoyment to the high school days of those who are fortunate enough to know her.

EDITH DUDLEY

Northwestern High School; Treasurer of F. A. C. in Northwestern; Skinny Club; Girls' Basketball; Athletic Association; Manager Girls' Basketball Team; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Girls' Letter Club.

"Beneath that calm exterior lies a deal of deviltry."

Edith takes an active part in all school activities and also is a bright student. She is peppy, reliable, and is always willing to help. She is one of our star players in basketball. Here's to Edith that she may have as successful a future as her days in Charlotte High.

GEORGE W. DUDLEY, JR.

"Dut"

Athletic Association, 2, 3; Naturalist Club, 2; Vice-President Hi-Y, 3; Marshal, 3; Senior Hi-Y No. 2, 4; Rambler Staff, 4; Chief Cheer Leader, 4.

"Here's a friend, kind and true,
And he's always cheerful, too."

"Aw, come on folks, you aren't cheering," raves George, as those Charlotte Wild-Cats fall in line! With a heap o' smiles and a wave o' his hand, he led 'em on and on, 'till they scored—The Champs. To you, George, we are grateful for a goodly portion of Hi-School "Pep" and sincere good-fellowship.

ALBERT LELAND DULIN

"Dulee"

Secretary Debating Society, 1; Treasurer Sophomore and Freshman Dramatic Club, 2; Naturalist Club, 2; Junior Literary and Debating Society, 3; Junior Dramatic Club, 3; Pi-Pa-Ki, 4; Dramatic Society, 4.

"Dulee's" talent and ability in amateur dramatics is well known. In fact, some of his acting has been such as to make professionals jealous; he has the art of bringing out every bit of humor in a part without burlesquing it. Nor is his humor confined to the stage, for often a particular apt bit of wit or sarcasm from Albert has caused a burst of laughter in the solemnest of classes.

He is not, however, merely a humorist or an actor. He is a good student, a true friend and a valuable member of the student body. (Also, it is rumored among our feminine friends, that he is considerable of a sheik.)

JAMES FRANKLIN DUNCAN

"Jim"

Literary Society, 1; Naturalist Club, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2.

"Men of few words are the best men."

During Jim's four long years in high school he has made himself one of the best and most popular boys here. He has won many friends and if you are not one of them you have surely missed something. Here's wishing you success in the years to come, Jim.

IRWIN EARNHARDT

"Who mixed reason with pleasure, and wisdom with mirth."

In Irwin we have a classmate of whom we may be justly proud. The best that can be said of one is that he is sincere and reliable, and in him we have both of these qualities. He has successfully mixed fun in with his diligent search for wisdom. Years shall not efface the many friendships he has formed during his stay with us.

CELESTINE FEDERAL

"Suddon"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; V II Club, 2; Home Economics Club, 4; Latin Club, 4; Athletic Association, 2; Literary Society, 1.

"Her voice was ever soft,
Gentle, and low; an excellent thing in woman."

If you are numbered among Celestine's many friends you are very fortunate, for she is a true and loyal friend. Her lovable and winning ways make her welcome anywhere. She is truly the prettiest girl in the Senior class; her black hair and big gray eyes are an excellent combination. Here's to you, Celestine, may you have the best in life.

MYRTLE ODESSA FISHER

"Myrt"

Literary Society, 2; Junior High Club, 2.

"True as the dial to the sun."

If you want to find someone whom you can trust, you can count on Myrtle. The truest friends are sometimes the quietest and this can be applied here. If you haven't gained her friendship you have certainly missed something, for she is a pal most loyal and true.

TESSIE FLANAGAN

"T"

Alexander Graham Literary Society, 1; Basketball Club, 2; Camp Fire Girls, 2; Girl Reserves.

"A rosebud, set with little wilful thorns."

Put together some light wavy hair, sky blue eyes, flashy teeth and you will have a good description of Tessie. You can see she's Irish, all right, by her name, and she also has the true Irish temper which at times is uncontrollable and explodes most frequently on Geometry. Nevertheless, in spite of her quick temper and ready tongue, Tessie is a fine girl and a true friend and we are glad to have her in our class.

ELIZABETH FOWLER

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Dramatic Club, 2; Washington Literary Society, 1.

"When she's good, she's very, very good,
But when she's bad, she's awful."

"Lib" is a good sport and a true friend. Speaking of pep, she is pep itself, never quiet a minute unless it's one of those times when she isn't being "very, very good," and then you better watch out! She has laughing blue eyes and dark curly hair. Besides all these qualities she is a fine student and makes good grades in all her work.

THOMAS SKINNER FRANKLIN

"Tom"

Literary Society, 1; Secretary and Treasurer Class, 2; Kodak Club, 2; Naturalist Club, 2; Vice-President H-Y, 3; Circulation Manager Rambler, 3; President Student Council, 3; Vice-President Class, 3; Dramatic Club, 4.

"Cuckoo, jug jug, pu wee to witta woo, Spring—sweet spring."

To some one who does not know Tom, he might appear to be like spring—so fresh and green. But we that know him are certain that he isn't green. Tom is the master of an almost extinct art, passing without studying. We'll miss him a lot for his wise cracks and observations on the fickle ways of girls.

FRANCES LEONE FRAZIER

"Leone"

Literary Society, 2; Girls' Reserve Club, 2; Home Economics Club, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

"Here is a dear, a true industrious friend."

Leone is a girl who possesses a great deal of common sense; she is witty, smart, dependable, capable, and very humorous when you know her. She will always be remembered as a girl who is unselfish, sympathetic, and a true friend. In her commercial work she stands right at the top and we predict that she is going to be a success in the business world.

HAZEL GABLE

"Gable"

Naturalist Club, 2; Chemistry Club, 4; Vice-President Chemistry Club, First Semester; President Second Semester; Senior Photography Club, 4.

"For such a faithful tender heart, can never break in vain."

Our class of '24 is very fortunate in having with them Hazel Gable. "Gable," as he is known to all his friends, is always smiling and takes things as they come. When he works, he puts his whole mind and heart into it, and never says, "TOMORROW." If there is any harshness or disagreeable parts about him, it must be on the inside. So, Hazel, here are hopes that you succeed in the big "LIFE" problem before you.

JOHN GALLAGHER

"The rule of my life is to make business a pleasure and pleasure my business."

John seems to have chosen for his motto, "Never do today what can be put off till tomorrow." In spite of this, he has won the admiration of his classmates by his persistent efforts. Many are the ups and downs in his career, but as the saying goes, "you can't keep a good man down." This certainly holds good in his case, for he seems to have overcome every obstacle. By his genial disposition and charming personality, he has rightfully won the friendship of every member of his class.

PHILIP GALLAGHER

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Football, 3, 4; Track Team, 2, 3, 4; Captain, 3; Manager, 4; Letter Club, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y, 2, 3, 4; Secretary and Treasurer Class, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Athletic Editor "Rambler," 3; Cross-Country Club, 2.

"He who never gives up usually succeeds."

We have all come to realize that in Philip we have a boy on whom we can depend. He is a sincere, true friend, and a lover of the great out-of-doors. He has successfully taken part in many school activities. As a distance runner he captained our track team to the Championship in '23. Here's wishing the best of luck to Joey Ray's future successor.

JAMES GEDDINGS GALLANT

"Jim"

Newspaper and Magazine Club, 2; Debating and Declamation Club, 2; Chemistry Club, 4; Senior Photography Club, 4.

"The future I may face now I have proved the past."

James is a boy of fine character and enduring qualities. If he wants anything he goes after it with determination but with patience. He does not like to study, but when he does he gets along really well. He is a good friend and is always ready to help anyone he can. We all wish him much luck in the years to come.

BERTHA CORNELIA GARRISON

North Charlotte High School, 1, 2, 3; Latin Club, 4.

"She's not too quiet, and she's not too gay,
But she's won many friends by her kind, friendly way."

"Cordy" is a friendly, modest girl, always thoughtful and kind. Although she is studious and quiet, she is always ready for a good time. Her many friends value her friendship highly.

JOHN STARR GARRISON

"Johnnie"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 4; Secretary of Girls' High School Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 4; Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Modern Drama Club, 2.

"Lovely to walk with, sweet to talk with and nice to think of."

"Johnnie" is a good all-round student—studious enough to make a record, sport enough to be liked and sweet enough to be lovable. As a matter of fact she is a girl of "fifty-seven varieties"—all delectable.

MARY PAULINE GARRISON

"Polly"

Freshman Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2; President of Camp Fire Girls' Club, 2; Student Council, 3; Latin Club, 4.

"A divinity to fools;
A helper to the wise."

That's "Polly." If you have not studied your lesson let "Polly" set you right. She's surely one of the good old stand-bys. She never disappoints. "Polly" is always there with the goods. She is one of the very few who can be a sport, have a good time, enjoy themselves, and yet be an excellent student. And when it comes to friendship—well, if "Polly" likes you, you are fixed for life.

EVA CORNELIZ GILLESPIE

"Sibby"

Central High School Literary Society; Red Cross; Etiquette Club.

"Her eyes are homes of silent prayer."

She is tender and pure, earnest and loving, and her greatest pleasure being in cheering some discouraged heart and making someone's burden lighter. She has a certain quiet dignity all her own, a gentle winning manner, and a willingness to be that needed member of society—a useful woman.

EDWARD G. GLOVER

Literary Society, 1; Vice-President Freshman Class, 1; Naturalist Club, 2; Athletic Association; President Junior Class, Central High School; Student Council, Central High; Marshal, 3; Latin Club; Hi-Y Club.

"Determination prepares its own way to success."

Edward's outward appearance would create the belief that he was an unusually quiet fellow, but still water runs deep, and upon further acquaintance Edward proves himself a regular fellow, full of fun, pep and determination. He is greatly admired by all who know him.

KATHLEEN WARD GRAY

"Kitty"

Girls' High School Club; Dramatic Club; Vice-President of Latin Club, 4.

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

"Kitty" is quiet, lovable, studious, and sincere, with a smile and a kind word for every one. She is always reliable and loyal, as well as generous and charming. In her we find a friend as true as steel. She is full of class spirit, and is always ready and eager to do what is asked of her. The Senior class would be incomplete without "Kitty." We feel honored to graduate with her.

VAL GUTHERY

"Bud"

Baird's, 2, 3; Marshal, 3; Dramatic Club, 4; Assistant Advertising Manager of "Rambler," 4; Class Poet, 4.

"Not too sober and not too gay
But a real good fellow in every way."

"Bud" is John Milton's nearest rival when it comes to writing poetry. He is six feet two of the best friend we have ever had. When it comes to getting ads, they just call on Bud. He could make an Eskimo advertise for a refrigerator. If there's a girl around, "Bud" is Johnnie-on-the-spot. He seems to have a warm spot in his heart for a little town down the Seaboard. He has been untiring in his efforts to do anything he could for C. H. S. and we know they will miss you next year, "Bud."

EDITH GLENN HAGER

Literary Club, 1; Camp Fire Girls, 2; Latin Club, 4.

"She is little and she's wise,
But she's a terror for her size."

Edith is one of the dearest girls in the Senior class. No one has ever been able to catch her with a frown on her face. She is always smiling. She is loyal to all her friends, and is ever ready to lend a helping hand to anyone in trouble. She is very quiet, preferring to listen rather than to talk. Her charm of personality and her sweet smile are sure to win friends for her wherever she may go.

ELIZABETH DURHAM HALL

"Lib"

Basketball Club; Red Cross and Literary Club.

"Of all the girls in our High School,
There's none so gay as "Lib."

"Lib" is a sure cure for the blues and with her ready wit and smile she drives afar all worries—even of the test next period. If you feel like laughing you may be sure she will laugh with you and if in trouble you have her ready sympathy, which never intrudes but makes itself felt through the medium of love.

MARY MILLS HAM

"Ham"

Basketball Squad, 2, 3, 4; Freshman Club, 1; Girls' Club, 2, 3, 4; Melody Makers Club, 2; Social Editor of "Rambler," 3; Alexander Graham Literary Society, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2.

"The last suitor gets the maid."

If we should give to Mary Mills, all done up in a sack, a nickel for each lad she thrills, the load would break her back. Of soup and love, a rigid test would show she likes the first the best—but she is always on the quest of some new John or Jack. Her surplus wit and golden locks are simply minor parts. Her belt is lined with varied stocks of scalps and conquered hearts. But nature made her on a plan apparently so spick and span that she has not yet found the man to match her gifts and arts.

FLORABEL HARRILL

Athletic Association, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Chairman of Finance Committee of G. H. S. C.; 4; Skinney Club, 4; Latin Club, 4; Dramatic Club, 2; Literary Society, 2.

"A comrade blithe and full of glee,
Who dares to laugh out loud and free."

Fun, smiles, pep, that's Florabel. Not too serious, not too gay, but a girl one just couldn't help loving. Florabel is an attractive girl and she's as smart as she is pretty, and she is dependable and capable at all times. Here's hoping she will win as many friends and honors in college as she won at Charlotte High.

LULA HERBERT HARRIS

"Hubbie"

Girls' Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Secretary Cameron Morrison Literary Society, 1; Choral Club, 1; Girls' High School Swimming Team, 3; Red Cross Council, 3.

"She walks in beauty like the night."

"Hubbie," as she is known to us, is a girl of good character and high ideals. She is very fond of all kinds of sports, especially swimming, and was one of the best swimmers on our Girls' High School Club team. You should just watch her dive once. It is very rare for one to find her sad or not smiling. But in spite of the fact that where one finds fun and merriment one finds "Hubbie." She will not allow the daily pleasures to interfere with her school work and is one of the leaders in all her classes.

HELEN HARDIE

Girls' High School Club, 2; Short Story Club, 2; Washington Irving Literary Society, 2.

"Individuality is a gift of the gods."

Helen is versatile. Hers is the rare knack of excelling in anything she undertakes. She dances like a dream, and in the pool she is a regular water-nymph. More than that she has the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time. Helen is artistic; she has an eye for color and a sense of the finer proportions of things. How she manages to keep up with her varied activities—and studies, too—with such ease, is a mystery. To know of Helen is to envy her; to know Helen is to admire her.

MAYE CLITHEROE HARDIN

"Buddy"

President Freshman High School Club, Wilmington; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Advisor for Junior High School Girls' Club, 4; Senior Dramatic Club, 4; Athletic Association.

"The love-light's in her eye,
Her very frowns are fairer far
Than smiles of other maidens' are."

Maye came to us three years ago from Wilmington, although she is originally from Virginia. We certainly were fortunate in getting her because she has been a true "Buddy" to us all. She is always ready with a smile and a kind word. We wonder if "Lawyers and Art" will go together, for Maye has a weakness for both!! Her artistic taste is worthy of special notice.

GEORGE HART

"George"

Greenwood, South Carolina, High School, 1, 2; Senior Photography Club, 4.

"To say little and perform much are characteristics of a great man."

George came to our school from Greenwood, S. C., and he was very timid at first, but soon he joined in the sway of our school and made many friends. There is no one in school but who likes George because of his winning disposition.

VIRGINIA HAWKINS

"Va"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Washington Irving Society, 2; Modern Drama Club, 3; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3; Marshal, 3.

"When I resemble her to thee
How sweet and fair she seems to be."

Virginia is surely a sweet girl. We all love her and will never get used to not having her dashing through the halls of C. H. S. trying to get to class before the buzzer sounds. She has won many, many friends during her school life—friends who will always love her. When "Va" smiles at you, the whole world seems ten times brighter.

FRANCES LEOTA HENLEY

"Tootsie"

Literary Society, 1; Dramatic Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4.

"I would be friends with you and have you live."

"Tootsie" is a true and genuine friend. Her ambition is to be a violinist; and we are sure she will succeed, for whatever she is interested in she goes ahead and does. It is absolutely useless to attempt to deter her from her purpose. Besides being a violinist, "Tootsie" is a splendid art student and gives promise of being a credit to this school.

HOYLE DURWARD HILL

"Hoyle"

V. Pi. 2; Chemistry Club, 4; President Fifth Period American History Class.

"Direct him not, whose way himself will choose."

The Class of '24 is fortunate in having him, because fellows like Hoyle are not plentiful. He goes about his work in an easy, pleasant, optimistic manner, and he usually comes out on top. If there is any harshness or meanness in him, none of his schoolmates has found it out. Anyone might envy his personality, because it is one that means success to the possessor. He is one of the few boys that realizes that he goes to school to learn—ask his teachers. Some folks say they believe he wrote our chemistry and history textbooks, others believe he is kin to Solomon. Anyway, if you are in doubt anything, ask Hoyle—he knows!

JOSEPHINE PHIFER HOUSTON

"Joe"

Athletic Association, 1, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Modern Drama Club; Washington Irving Literary Society; Latin Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"So true, so sweet she is That one and all are happy to be with her."

Josephine, who is blessed with personality and gifted with charm that makes lasting friends, will always be remembered by her class-mates as companionable, pleasing, unselfish, and lovable. She is studious too, and we hope that she may have the same success in college that she has had in high school.

HAZEL MOUNTJOY HUNTER

"Weedy"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Chairman Publicity Committee G. H. S. C., 4; Class Prophetess; Annual Staff; Secretary Sophomore-Freshman Dramatic Club, 2; "Scribble and Scrawl"; Sigma Delta, 2; Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Home Economics Club, 4.

"Good humor and good sense are always joined."

"Weedy" is a "vision in brown." Her hair and even those adorable and numerous little freckles (sh-h! sh!) add to the picture. She is a type that will always count her friends among the old and young. She may be said to be a modernized edition of the old-fashioned girl, combining the best features of both.

OLIVE REGAN HUNTER

"Olie"

Literary Society; Basketball Club; Girls' Reserves.

"True-hearted, whole-hearted, faithful and true."

Olive is just the happiest, most companionable person you've ever seen—a person who can sympathize when you tell her things; will talk seriously with you, and will laugh with you. She's just the kind of girl anyone can like and when you've won her friendship, you have it for life. Olive is very reserved and dignified, and she catches on to jokes as quickly and as easily as an Irishman.

LOUISE ERWIN HUTCHISON

"Hutch"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Sophomore-Freshman Dramatic Club, 2; Home Economics Club, 4; U. F. E.; Washington Irving Literary Society, 2; Latin Club, 4.

"One could write on for pages, but it wouldn't help much towards describing the girl whom we all know as "Hutch."

Sweetness is the keep of her personality and it unlocks the doors of every one's heart. She has never been known to get mad! That alone is a record of which we would all be proud. Dependability is another one of her assets. If she says she'll do it—she does it well. She's smart too, but why say more? She's known and loved by everyone, which is enough in itself.

WILLIAM WALKER JARRELL

"Pig"

Varsity Baseball, 2, 3, 4; Tennis Team, 4; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4, 5; Jew Derby Club, 3; "C" Club, 2, 3, 4, 5; Sport Editor "Rambler," 5; Advertising Manager Snips and Cuts, 5; Class Basketball, 1; Glee Club, 2, 3; Naturalist Club, 3; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3; Manager Tennis Team, 4, 5; Cross Country Club, 2; Gallus Club, 4; Hi-Y Basketball, 5; Football Squad, 5; Cameron Morrison Literary Society, 2.

"Pig," or "Rhody," as we often call him, is just five feet of fight, pep, and spirit. His consistency, determination, and grit easily overcome his handicap in size. Central High will be lost without "Pig" next year.

MARGARET P. KELLER

"Margaret"

"Never known to shirk;
Quiet she does her daily work."

Margaret is a girl we all admire for her winning smile and quiet manner of doing things. We hardly know she is in our midst except for her smile. She always has her work done well and on time, which many of us do not do. This arouses our admiration for her to a much higher degree.

THOMAS WESLY KELLER

"Tom"

Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Photography Club, 4.

"Large was his bounty, and his soul sincere."

"Tom" is a loyal, sincere fellow and a boy of sterling qualities. He is popular with his classmates and teachers. He's smart, reliable and a good sport. We hate to see him go this spring.

C. VIRGINIA KELLEY

"Kelley"

Secretary of True Blue Literary Society, 1; Treasurer of Modern Drama Club, 2; Marshal, 3; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; "Rambler" Staff, 4; Class Historian, 4; Guild Leader of Girls' High School Club, 4.

"She's all my fancy painted her;
She's lovely, she's divine."

We really couldn't get along without "Kelley" for she is worth her weight in gold. Along with her good looks and sunny disposition, is a little bit of mischief which makes her a regular pal. She is so radiant, so genial, so kind, and so pleasure-bearing, that you instinctively feel in her presence that she does you good.

LOUISE KIMBALL

St. Margaret's Boarding School; Athletic Association; President Art Club; Treasurer Sigma Delta; Girls' High School Club; Pi-Pi Dramatic Club; Alexander Graham Literary Society.

"Of me you may write in the blackest ink
I mean what I say and I say what I think."

Louise is very hard to write up, but everybody that knows her loves her. She is always willing to help her classmates. She's clever and amusing and is an example of attractive indifference.

ELIZABETH KISSIAH

"Lib"

Literary Society, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2; Commercial Club, 3, 4.

"Of all the ladies in our land
There's none so sweet as Elizabeth."

Elizabeth is the kind of girl we all want for a friend. She is very studious, but she fully enjoys all leisure moments. She always thinks just the very best thing any girl could think and is always ready to lend a sympathetic ear to everybody's troubles, and delights in helping all. Elizabeth will always be remembered by her classmates of C. H. S. because of her kind disposition and unselfishness.

MARJORIE LENORA KISTLER

"Frenchie"

Freshmen Girls' Club, 1; Secretary-Treasurer Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Dramatic Club, 2.

"To those who know thee not, no words can paint
And those who know thee, know all words are faint."

Marjorie is a true friend to everyone. She is sweet and dainty, too. We wonder how she manages to stand so well in her classes and still have as much fun as she does at dances. She is both dignified and jolly and she has the happy faculty of knowing just when to be jolly and just when to be dignified.

EDITH AILEENE LEDWELL

"Edith"

Literary Society, 1; Naturalist Club, 2.

"Only a girl, with her wild strange way,
With her idle hours, or her busy days,
With her quiet remarks, and her odd replies,
Sometimes foolish, and sometimes wise."

Edith is a girl worthy of the very best there is in life. As a friend, she is loyal, true-hearted and sincere; as a student, she gives her honest endeavor to every task. She is a friend worth having. Her sunny smile and lovable disposition make her a regular, all-round pal. She has made many, many friends in High School. She is the most cheerful of the cheerful—the sunniest disposition—always happy and making others happy. After all, Edith has a number of friends and is loved by all.

ELIZABETH ADAMS LITTLE

"Lit"

Literary Club; Girls' High School Club, 2; Vice-President Art Club, 2; Athletic Association.

"She is, herself, a collection of the best things."

It is useless to seek for a girl like "Lit" for she cannot be found. Elizabeth has a charming personality. Because of her sincerity as a friend she will never want for friends wherever she may venture. "Lit" is destined to be a noted worker among children, because of her love for them. Her ambition is directed along this line, and we most heartily wish her success.

HELEN LONG

Derita High School, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3; Athletic Association, 2; Basketball Club, 2; Basketball Squad, 3, 4.

"'Tis good will makes intelligence."

Here is a true daughter of Charlotte High! She is full of enthusiasm and school spirit. Her sweet disposition and unselfishness cause her to be loved by every one with whom she comes into contact. Helen can interpret Gray's and Milton's poems like a genius. She is an unusually good athlete and we predict for her great success as a "gym" teacher.

ANNE IRENE LOWRANCE

Freshmen Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Astronomy Club, 2; Dramatic Club, 3; Latin Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"A maiden calm, serene, and shy, Forever with a book hard by."

In all her classes, Irene is an honor pupil. She is always willing to help folks in anything they do not understand and to take part in any program that is prepared. Irene is not only a good student but a good friend, and we all love to be around her because she is so cheerful and bright, and never have we known her to be melancholy. We all dedicate a wonderful future to Irene in any line she might choose because of her wonderful capability.

JOHN PAUL LUCAS, JR.

President Radio Club, 1; Radio Club, 2; President Debating Literary Society, 3; President Pi Pa Ki, 4; Secretary and Treasurer Photographer's Club, 4; Vice-President Phi Lambda Ki, 4; Debating Society, 4.

"His talk is like a stream that runs,
With rapid changes from politics to puns."

John Paul has achieved success during his High School career. He has written the best essays in Charlotte on "Good Roads," "Good Citizenship," and other topics. He is a splendid speaker, and all who know him, know him to be a good sport.

HELEN LYERLY

Literary Society, 1; Choral Club, 2; High School Club, 2, 3.

"The man that hath no music in his soul,
Nor is not moved by concord of sweet sounds,
Is fit for treasons, stratagems, and spoils."

Helen's ready wit is welcomed everywhere and by everyone. You never see Helen when she is not smiling. And Oh! but that mind. No one except a genius could master Senior English as Helen does. She is a born musician, and we expect great things in the future for Helen in her musical career, as she expects to specialize in music at Salem.

ANNIE LEE MANN

"Bill"

Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Modern Drama Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4; Chief Marshal, 3; Student Council, 2.

"As pure and sweet, her fair brow seemed eternal as the sky;
And like the brook's low song, her voice,
A sound which could not die."

If, in our Senior census there had been a place for the sweetest girl in the class, I'm sure "Bill" would have gotten it, for she is never too busy to lend a sympathetic ear to every one's troubles; and her pretty face and sweet, unselfish ways always win her friends wherever she goes.

If you went to Miss Bertha's Minstrel you'll certainly agree that she's quite a little star when it comes to singing.

MADLINE LOUISE MANUS

"Neane"

Girls' Reserve, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Hiking Club, 2; Alexander Graham High School, 1, 2, 3.

"Not too serious, not too gay,
But a good ol' pal in every way."

Madeline is a good-natured girl and for this reason has many friends. She is always looking on the bright side of things and often wonders why everyone else doesn't do the same. Madeline is very industrious and tries to please everyone, which is a most unusual and admirable characteristic.

HELEN MAY MESSICK

"Lucky"

Critic of Literary Society, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Melody Makers Club, 2; Marshal, 3; Latin Club, 4.

"Smiling, laughing, evermore
Thou art perfect in love lore."

That holds true as far as Helen is concerned but a verse describing all her virtues couldn't be found. Helen is never bothered by studies; she is always happy and jolly trying some funny incident, except when worrying over a certain—very certain—person. Who knows who it is? This old school will "sure Mike" Miss Helen but our best wishes will always be with her.

WILLIAM CARY MILLER

"Sheik"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Debating Club, 3; Ass'tant Editor "El Hablador," 4; Debating Club, 4; Photography Club, 3, 4;

"He cast off his friends as a huntsman his pack;
For he knew, when he pleas'd, he could whistle them back."

"Sheik" Miller has, by his brilliant personality and charming dimples, won a host of friends among both the boys and girls of this school. As assistant editor of "El Hablador," will have to confess he's a wonder. He's on our debating team and we are sure of his success. Will hate to lose you "Sheik."

CATHERINE MILLS

"Cat"

Literary Society, 1; Dramatic Club, 2; Latin Club, 4; "Scribble and Scrawl Club," 4; Girls' High School Club, 1, 2, 3.

"To what limits could Catherine reach,
With her hobby, that gift of speech."

We could not possibly get along without "Cat." She is such a good mixer and is so jolly and so humorous that everyone likes her. Too, she is very studious and makes good grades. "Cat" makes such excellent grades in Spanish that she is a perfect mystery. We all wish her the best of luck in the future.

CHARLOTTE MILSTEAD

"Even the darkest hour shall see me smile."

Charlotte! we all know and love her, what would school be if it were not for her bright smile. She is as pretty as she is sweet and is the life of the class, always ready to help in all that comes along. She is the one member of the class that we couldn't do without.

KATHERINE NOVELLA MOCK

"Kitty"

Literary Society, 1; Basketball Club, 2.

"Calm in appearance; motives unknown,"

"Kitty" is a girl who is never appreciated until she is intimately known. But once her friendship is obtained, it is never lost, for she is a most loyal comrade. "Kitty's" hobby is teasing the piano—thus she succeeds in working off her superfluous energy. As "Kitty" has been in our schools quite a number of years she has won a warm place in all our hearts. The Senior Class is lucky in having her as one of their number.

SARAH ELIZABETH MOODY

"Sally"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Leader of Guild of Girls' Club, 4; Dramatic Club, 2; Literary Society, 1; Vice-President of Senior Class, 4.

"A face with gladness overspread Soft smiles by human kindness bred."

Sarah is a girl that every one loves; she can be depended upon in whatever she undertakes to do. She is always cheerful, having a smile and a kind word for every one. Sarah is an acknowledged leader in the school, as such as she would naturally be. Her sunny smile and happy disposition will always win for her scores of friends.

FLORRIE MOORE

"Fido"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 3; Alexander Graham Literary Society, 2.

". . . . brown eyes
In whose orbs a shadow lies
Like the dust in evening skies."

Florrie was away from C. H. S. last year, but she is back again this year with all her striking ways. She is a striking brunette with a striking manner. She whirls through striking events in a very striking way and extricates herself somewhat strikingly from the most striking predicaments. You guessed it—she's a striking girl!

JOHN C. MONTGOMERY

"Jack"

Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Kodak Club, 3; Washington Irving Literary Society, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Latin Club, 4.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

"Jack" is little but he occupies a large place in our hearts. He is short in inches, but six-foot two in spirit and friendliness. "Jack" is always willing and ready to help anybody he can. He is a clean backer of all forms of student activity. "Jack" is a good student and noted for being a hard worker. We predict great success for "Jack," because he has the will to do and the brains to back up the will.

MARY ELIZABETH MORRIS

"Mary"

Freshman Club, 1; Junior High Club, 2; Chairman Program Committee; Literary Society, 1, 2; Hiking Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 1, 2, 3, 4.

"What would we do in High School land for continuous chatter, if Mary were not at hand?"

Every time Mary "Lib" comes near, the sun seems to shine just a little brighter. Everyone knows and loves her for her sweet disposition and winning ways. She is ever frank, sincere, and sweet. To know her is to love her, because she is a real, sure enough girl.

WILLIAM WORTH MORRIS

"Pinky"

Student Council, 2; Hi-Y, 3, 4, 5; Vice-President Hi-Y, 4; President, 5; Boys' Cabinet Y. M. C. A., 4, 5; President, 5; Letter Club, 4, 5; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3; Vice-President Home Room, 5; Cross Country Club, 3; Class Basketball, 3, 4, 5; Varsity Basketball, 3, 4, 5; Captain Basketball, 5; Football, 5; Track, 4, 5.

"Not too sober, not too gay,
But a real good fellow in every way."

"Pinky" has won praise in most every form of athletics. He has played spectacular basketball and has been on the track team for a number of years. This year was his first year out for football and he also "showed his stuff" then. He is active in all forms of High School life and his many friends bid him the best of luck in college and out in life.

Trips and Cuts of XXIV

NELLIE DE ROHAN MOSTELLER

"Nell"

Hiking Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4.

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

"Nell" has gained a host of friends in our school because of her sweet and friendly disposition. Everyone who knows her knows what a fine girl she is. Smiles are surely "catching," and when you are around "Nell"—well, you can't help but "catch 'em."

JOHN QUINCY MYERS, JR.

"Quincy"

Baird's School; Senior Hi-Y Club, 4; Hi-Y Basketball Team, 4; High School Orchestra, 4.

"His happy disposition, his pleasant smile,
Have won him friends for many a mile."

John has been with us only one year. In that time his genial good nature and his ever-ready smile have won him many friends. He is not only jolly, but he also does his work with determination. Luck to you, Quincy, may you succeed everywhere you go.

HELEN ENOREE McCORKIE

"Just Helen"

Alexander Graham Literary Society, 1; President Alexander Graham Literary Society, 1; Girls' Basketball Club, 2; Girls' Reserves, 3.

"Sincerity and truth form the basis of every virtue."

We are certainly glad to have had Helen in our school because she is interested in all school activities and is such a fine girl in every respect. She is always smiling—even when pondering over Geometry. Speaking of fun, well, she surely is jolly. She's ready and willing to do her part and can be depended on at all times.

JENNIE LEE McCOY

Girls' Freshman Club; Girls' High School Club; Basketball Club; Cameron Morrison Literary Society; Commercial Club.

"The blue of her eyes and her golden hair are blend of the western sky."

Jennie Lee is an all-round girl in every respect. She is beautiful and attractive and we shall always remember her for her golden hair. Her spare time is spent in making male hearts flutter. The success of many of our high school entertainments has been due to her musical talent. If you want to make her blush and see her smile just mention B . . . . Her success as a Commercial student is worthy of special notice.

Ships and Cuts of '24

LILIUS E. McINTOSH

"Lem"

Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Hiking Club, 1.

"To know her is to love her."

"Lem" is the kind of a girl we all want for a friend—true and loyal, and always to be depended upon. She is a sweet, natural, easy-going girl. She's not so easy going that she stands still while everything goes on and leaves her, though. She keeps up with the lessons, and so doesn't get crushed when she hits the exams.

JOHNSIE IRENE McKAY

"Bobbie"

Freshman Club, 1; Junior High Club, 2; Literary Society, 3; Commercial Club, 4.

"Happy am I, from care I'm free;
Why aren't they all contented like me?"

A happy-go-lucky creature is "Bobbie." Her chief ambition is to make good but to have a good time along with it. Our bright and charming "Bobbie's" witty remarks, unfailing good humor, and general attractiveness have made her one of the most popular and "unforgettable" members of the class. What would we do without "happy-go-lucky 'Bobbie'?" Her continuous chatter is a source of great amusement for all within hearing distance and we'll never forget the many funny things "What 'Bobbie' did."

ROBERT L. McMILLAN

"Bob"

Football Squad, 3, 4; Varsity Football, 5; Track, 3, 4, 5; Captain Basketball Squad, 2, 3, 4, 5; Vice-President Class, 4; President Senior Class, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3; Manager Basketball, 4, 5; Class Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Cameron Morrison Literary Society, 2; Naturalist Club, 3; Glee Club, 2, 3; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4, 5; President Hi-Y Club, 2; Vice-President, 4, 5; Marshal, 3; Y. M. C. A. Boys' Cabinet, 2, 3, 4, 5; President, 4; Vice-President, 3; Athletic Editor "Ramblin'," 4.

"Nature might stand up and say to all the world,
'This is a man!'"

And Athletic meet? "Bob's" right there! He fights a good fight and plays a clean game. He is a boy of sterling qualities, and is very popular with his classmates, being voted the best-all-round and most popular boy in the Senior Class.

JOHN C. McNEELY

Washington Irvington Literary Society, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Kodak Club, 3; Hi-Y Club, 4.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

"Johnny"—as he is called—is one of the mainstays of the Class of '24 of old C. H. S. He has all the determination necessary to win in life. He is a true friend, a friend worth having. He is a fellow who will always lend a helping hand. John almost all the time has a smile on his face, but if spirit and fight are necessary, he is there with flags flying. If he continues the upright cheerful life that he has lived through school, he is bound to come out on top.

PEARL AGNES McNEILL

"Pete"

Girls' High School Club, Art Club, Latin Club, V Pi Club.

"She is as pretty as she is sweet."

"Pete," as she is known to almost everyone, is one of the sweetest girls in school. You never see her without a smile on her face. Even though when everybody is grumbling, she smiles and says, "What's the fuss?" She even smiles over Virgil. It has been a pleasure to have some one like her in school. We know she will make a great success in the big world.

WALTER OLIN NISBET

"Mutt"

Hi-Y, 3, 4; Glee Club, 3; Athletic Association, 2, 3, 4; Letter Club, 3, 4; Class Basketball, 1, 3, 4; Basketball Squad, 3; Football Squad, 2; Varsity Football, 3, 4; Naturalist Club, 3; Cameron Morrison Literary Society, 2; Hi-Y Basketball, 4; Kodak Club, 2; Baseball Squad, 3.

"Mutt" has proven himself absolutely essential to C. H. S.'s football team. We don't know what we will do next year without him. C. H. S. loses a good man and we envy the college that is lucky enough to gain him. "Mutt" is not only an athlete but he is well able to express himself on all subjects, and he always has a sound opinion.

MARY LEE NUCHOLS

"Knuckles"

Home Economics Club, 4; Alexander Graham Literary Society, 2; Basketball, 2, 3; Basketball Varsity, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Freshman Club, 1; Girls' Club, 2, 3, 4; Short Story Club, 2.

"Who hath good health is always young."

We picture her at fifty-three an energetic dame to whom a high-dive off a tree would seem a bit too tame. Her wholesome daily exercise makes her a tonic to our eyes, and keeps her trim and wondrous wise. Culture is her aim. Her swimming stunts are quite complete, though if she keeps her pace, webs might grow upon her feet and fins upon her face. But twenty years from now should see no change at all in Mary Lee, for she has found the mystic key to elegance and grace.

ALLEN HALL PAINTER

"Alkalie Ike"

Chemistry Club, 4; Naturalist Club, 2.

"Endurance is the crowning quality, and patience is the passion of great hearts."

Allen is locally known for his ability as a Chemistry "stude," for over in Martin's room you can see him mixing divers chemicals. He is the sort of chap who makes a success of his High School course. Allen always goes in to win and we know he will land on the top in the world.

MARGARET FRANCES PAYNE

"Peggy"

Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 2; Dramatic Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Skinny Club, 4.

"My toast to a girl with a heart and a smile,
Who makes the bubble of life worth while."

Always happy and bright, always willing to take part in things, be it work or play—that's Margaret. She is one of the most popular girls of the Senior class. So here's to a pretty girl, here's to a witty girl, a good sport, a loyal and true friend.

CAROLYN BOLLING PEASELEY

"Peachie"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2; Choral Club, 2; Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 1; Literary Society, 2; Basketball, 4.

Peachie is a real, true, sincere, friend; always meeting everybody with a cheery smile. She's a good sport on every occasion. Win her love and you've gained something worth-while. Not only is she unselfish and attractive, but she is exceedingly good looking. Catch a glimpse of those dimples? Watch her play basketball.

Here's the best of luck to you, Peachie.

GEORGE HARRY PEELER

"Harry"

Rockwell High School, 1; Vice-President V II Club, 2; Sigma Delta, 2; Student Council, 3.

"Nature might stand up and say: 'this is a man'."

Harry is one of our best students because his grades are uniformly high. Harry likes to tease someone, but if you get into trouble he will do all that it is possible for him to do to help you. Despite Harry's somewhat serious disposition, he is remarkably jolly and careful. He has the ability to make many friends and to keep them. After Harry graduates we expect great things from him. It is said that when Harry speaks, wisdom is present.

SAMUEL PETTUS

"Sam"

'Tis this that everyone would say,
He's a dandy good fellow in every way.

The quotation above is an excellent portrayal of Sam's standing among his fellow students. He is recognized as a stalwart supporter of the things that are best in school life. A good write-up would not omit his relations with the fair sex. In the realm of learning, he may be master of his destiny; but in cupid's court he has become a submissive slave.

ISABEL PHARR

"Issy"

Alexander Graham Literary Society, 1; Melody Makers, 2; Athletic Association, 2, 3; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Melé Club, 4.

"She was fair, and knew it not,
And like a sunbeam was her hair."

Isabel is one of the best girls that "ever was." "Issy's" friends are all those who know her, and she possesses that enviable quality of keeping them her friends. Without her we could not get along, for she brightens our class with her beauty.

DOROTHY LEIGH PHILLIPS

"Dot"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Choral Club, 2; Secretary and Treasure Salesmanship Club, 4; Campfire Girls, 2.

"All is not gold that glitters."

Dot is a wonderful pal—a friend to all, so to speak. Her ever-ready smile and charm of manner are sure to win friends for her wherever she goes. Sympathy and understanding lurk in the depths of her brown eyes. She is always ready to help others who are in trouble. Dot is a talented musician, possessing a wonderfully sweet voice, too. Someday she may win fame as an artist—who knows? Anyway, we wish her luck.

FREDERICK ADAM ALEXANDER PHILLIPS

"Grandpa"

V II Club, 2; Phi Lambda Chi; Chemistry Club, 3, 4; Secretary Phi Lambda Chi, 4; Senior Kodak Club, 4; Radio Club, 3.

"If wits were wisdom—ye Gods—another Solomon."

Grandpa has been with us these four years, and has taken an active part in the clubs of which he has been a member. We all know him as a quiet, studious pupil; he shines in physics, and has chosen to follow the works of a chemist. Well, Grandpa, we all wish you the best of luck. And we are quite certain you will succeed in whatever you undertake.

MARY LUCILLE PHILIPS

"Shorty"

Astronomy Club, 2; Latin Club, 4.

"Not too quiet, not too gay
But loyal and true in every way."

Mary is really the one the Senior class should have chosen for mascot. She is worthy of the best in life because she is so loyal, true-hearted and sincere. She gives her honest endeavor to every task. Her only short-coming is her height.

CLARA DAVIS PORTER

"Cleck"

President Literary Society, 1; Dramatic Club, 2; Etiquette Club, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3; Girls' Club, 2, 3, 4; Student Council, 1; Exchange Editor "Rambler," 4; Associate Editor Snips and Cuts, 4; Reporter H. E. Club, 4; Home Room Representative, 4; "Chief of Police," 4; Editor "El Hablador," 4.

"He does nothing who consoles a despairing man with his words;
He is a friend, who in a difficulty, helps by deeds where there is need of deeds."

Cleck is one of the most popular and influential girls in our school. She has a part in everything and does not seem to say "no." Her originality and brilliance place her far above the ordinary, and we consider her one of the best-all-rounds that Charlotte High has ever produced.

HELEAH PORTER

"Hella Poster"

Vice-President Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Modern Drama Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4; Chairman of World Fellowship Committee of G. H. S. C., 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"You can smile! Ah, that's a blessing.
Both to you and those you greet!
Thus you go through life confessing
Warmth of heart to all you meet."

Hella Poster is a happy-go-lucky, and nothing ever worries her. She has golden hair and eyes of blue. Although she didn't get it for the biggest flirt in the Senior Class, she likes to use those blue eyes of hers. She is a good sport, a true and loyal friend, and is willing to help anyone at any time.

NELLIE ELIZABETH PORTER

"Nell"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Hik Collect Club, 2; Glee Club, 1, 2; Basketball, 1; Home Economics Club, 4.

"Speech is silver, Silence is Golden."

Nell has been with us in old Charlotte H<sub>i</sub> only two years, but during those two years she has been a valuable addition to our student body. In her Junior year, her first in C. H. S., she suggested the means of putting a library in A. G. H. S., and in other ways she has helped us "lots"—specially when English is hard. Nell is a true blue girl, and a good student—one that Charlotte H<sub>i</sub> is proud of. Like Dante, we can say, she is "a body enviably sincere." Because of her determination to win success in the world, there seems no doubt about her bright future wherever she may chance to be.

CHARLES PRICE

"Charles"

"An honest man is the noblest work of God."

If it be true that all great men are modest, we believe we have a great man in Charles—at least, the makings. We know him best in the classroom, where he ranks among the highest, having made distinction for four years. He is the kind of boy whom the lovers of right admire. It is with a keen regret that we bid him adieu.

WILKES PRICE

"Wilkes"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Commercial Club, 4.

"A man of few words; fair and square."

Wilkes is a good, hard worker, however, he is never too busy to put away his task to help the other fellow.

He is rather quiet, but "still water runs deep" and we are forced to believe that he will achieve much in this world. His ready manner and his genial disposition have placed him far above the average and he demands the respect of all his classmates.

CARR ROBINSON PURSER

"Dutch"

Football Squad, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball Squad, 2, 4; Varsity Basketball, 4; Hi Y Club, 3, 4; Secretary and Treasurer Hi Y, 4; Track, 3, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2; Class Basketball, 1, 2, 3; Naturalist Club, 2; Alexander Graham Literary Society, 1; Glee Club, 2; Cross Country Club, 3.

"A little foolishness now and then,
Is relished by the wisest men."

Dutch, with his ready wit and love of fun is the life of his classes. He's popular, too, and a loyal supporter of all activities in Charlotte High.

ELIZABETH PURVIANCE

Literary Society, 1, 2; Marshal, 3.

"A fair sweet girl with skillful hand
And cheerful heart for treasure."

Elizabeth is a quiet girl. Her disposition is like southern sunshine and were it not for this our envy would make her conceited. As it is, our wonder and admiration accompany all of her success. We know she will win her way in the world and many friends, too, with that gentle way of hers, which has endeared her to all of her class-mates.

NOREEN MANDSLEY QUERN

Chattanooga High School, 1, 2; The Central Hi D. L. S., 3; Girls' High School Club, 3, 4.

"Everything is based on intellect."

Noreen is still with us after two years here, then one in Chattanooga, and now she graduates with us. She's full of wit and originality as shown by her wonderful essays and stories and we all predict the most brilliant future in writing for her. Her humor makes even the melancholy laugh and she always keeps the classes laughing with her wit. We wish her the greatest success in her two ambitions; namely, to be a writer of note and to be an old maid. Noreen does not know the meaning of the word enemy and she has none.

MARY MELISSA QUERY

"Mary"

Freshman Club, 1; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Guild Leader G. H. S. S. C., 4; Choral Club, 2; Tar Heel Literary Society, 1; Athletic Club Association, 1, 2, 3.

"So sweet, so kind,
So pretty—so true."

One is indeed very fortunate to be a friend of Mary's because she is ever loyal and true. She is always interested in all the activities of our school and willing to take her part. She has a kind word for every one. Mary is witty and original and all her qualities together make her a good-all-round girl.

EARL REDFERN

"Earl"

"Then he will talk, by Jupiter, how he will talk!"

Earl is a man of character, intellect, wit and winning personality, and one of the biggest-hearted boys in C. H. S. We predict for him a life of the politician—for he can sure "sling the breeze." His political speech in chapel last year was a corker.

A man's man, a student, and a loyal friend can look for nothing less than success. Such is our opinion of Earl.

LENA GREENWOOD REECE

"Giggles"

Alexander Graham Society; Newspaper Club; Girls' Camp-Fire Club; Girls' High School Club.

"Mirth, with thee I mean to live."

Lena is a wonderful girl with a charming personality. Her bright, sunny disposition has won a place in the hearts of all. She is a loyal, dependable girl, and always has a pleasant word for everyone she meets. She is the very essence of "pep" and school spirit. Lena will be missed "heaps" when she leaves old Charlotte High; but, although gone, she will not be forgotten. May her life be full of success and happiness.

MARY MORRIS REID

"Min"

Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Short Story Club, 2; Freshman Literary Society, 1.

"With hair so black, and eyes so brown,
A friend so good and true."

People, you've heard of the Sheik? Well, this doesn't happen to be he this time. But—it's the "Sheikess Herself," absolutely! Take a look for yourself. Although Min is a "Sheikess" in appearance, you can count on her as a true and ever-loyal friend.

TERESA RENNIE

"Tete"

Member Serving Club, 2; Member Literary Society, 1.

"For she with kindness is blest,
"And there is no one she offends."

Teresa is "even as you and I." She is neither stupid nor brilliant; she is just an ordinary, healthy, happy girl, whom everybody likes. She is neither very talkative nor yet very quiet, and her work is quite up to standard. In other words, we think she makes altogether an agreeable and satisfactory classmate.

MARY McKENZIE RIGLER

Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Freshman Club, 1; Sophomore Dramatic, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"She is bright, she is witty, a delight to know,
"You'll never find a sweeter, wherever you go."

We all love Mary and it's hard to express in words just how much we appreciate her. She is a girl who is always willing to help someone else. Yes, Mary is a friend we'll always remember.

LILY EVA ROBERTSON

"Tillie"

Freshman Club, 1; Junior High School Club, 2; Secretary Literary Society, 1, 2; Hiking Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 1, 2.

"Beware of her raven hair, for she excels
"All women in the magic of her looks."

Tillie is good nature personified, always wearing a smile and ready for fun. She is never too busy to lend a sympathetic ear to everybody's troubles, and her pretty face, and sweet unselfish disposition will win her friends wherever she goes. She has been a valued member of the Class of '24; never satisfied until her duties were well performed.

GEORGE McNEILL ROSE

Washington Irving Literary Society, 1, Athletic Association, 2, 3; Cross Country Club, 2; Kodak Club, 2; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President Hi-Y, 4; Business Manager Snips and Cuts, 4.

"Not too serious, not too gay,
"But a jolly good fellow in every way."

In the spring, a young man's fancy (we all know the rest), but it is always spring with George, for he has been in love so long that he has forgotten how it feels.

No, he doesn't play golf; radio in his favorite pastime. You can see George most any morning around 2 A. M. listening to see what the ether waves are saying. Yes, he has his amateur license now.

George is a regular fellow and a true friend. We all wish him well and are sure he will do justice to the standards of his school while in college.

MIRIAM TAYLOR SHELL

"Miriam"

Salisbury High School, 1, 2; President Commercial Club, 4; Girls' Reserve, 1; Editorial Staff, 1; Girls' Athletic Association, 2.

"Still they gazed and still the wonder grew,
That such a small head could hold all she knew."

Although Miriam is not so tall, she makes up for this by standing high in all her classes. Always a friend when needed. Dependable and capable at all times. She is sweet, sincere, and attractive and if once you win her love she is your friend for life. Luck to you, Miriam, may you always take the highest honors as you did in 'ole Charlotte High.

JOHN CRAIG SHELTON

"Sleep"

Literary Society, 1; Naturalist Club, 2; Football Squad, 2, 3; Latin Club, 4; Cafeteria Squad, 4.

"Get up, get up for shame! The blooming morn Upon her wings presents the god unshorn."

Although Sleep was voted the laziest boy in the Senior Class, we think that someday he will prove this untrue. He is a very desirable friend and comrade and has taken an active part in nearly all of our school athletics. His only weakness that we know of is his great attentiveness to the ladies.

BEATRICE SNOWDON SKINNER

"Bobbie"

Columbia High School, Columbia, S. C., 1; Deland High School, Deland, Florida, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2; Home Economics Club, 4.

"Her ready wit, her cheery smile
(Tho' in stature she is small)
Make her welcome all the while,
This loyal friend to all.

Bobbie came to us from Florida in our Sophomore year. She is always helping someone to forget their troubles with her winning smile. Bobs is very smart in her studies, algebra especially, and when anyone needs help she is always there with a helping hand. She is one of the "peppiest" members of our class and without her it would not be the same.

BEULAH MARGARET SMITH

"Boobie"

Freshman Club, 1; Literary Society, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Etiquette Club, 2; Salesmanship Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"What would we do in High School Land
For continuous chatter, were Beulah not at hand?"

Smiles, fun, pep—that's Boobie. She is always in for fun, and usually has her share. She is always looking on the bright side and wonders why every one else does not do the same. She keeps us in a "stew," but then, who can take Boobie seriously?

ELIZABETH GERALDINE SMITH

"Jerry"

Literary Society, 2; Dramatic Club.

"A merry heart maketh a cheery countenance."

Those who know Elizabeth love her. She is blessed with that natural ability of being able to see the fun in any situation. Studying is not her long suit; she grasps what knowledge she can without a text-book and gets away with it. "Jerry" has not decided what her vocation will be, but we are sure that she will succeed in anything she attempts.

MARY LAMB SMITH

"Dix"

Girls' High School, 1, 2, 3, 4; Ukelele Club, 2; Marshal, 3; Literary Society, 1; Latin Club, 4.

"The joy of living doth run like quicksilver in her veins."

Mary Lamb is one of those people you just like instinctively—without ever knowing quite why. She is never too busy to lend a sympathetic ear to everybody's trouble and this sweet, unselfish disposition will win her friends wherever she goes. Her loyalty to Charlotte High School, and her willingness to serve in any way, has endeared her to us all. She is good nature personified, always wearing a smile, and ready for fun. She is smart and yet is full of life and joy. Have you ever heard her laugh? If you haven't, listen for it—it will make you laugh, too.

RALPH WALLACE SMITH

"Smitty"

Varsity Football, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Track, 4; Captain, 4; Baseball, 2; Letter Club, 2, 3, 4; Radio Club, 2; Photography Club, 3; Literary Society, 2.

"Few things are impossible to diligence and skill."

Ralph is well-liked by everyone in school. He is always ready to help in anything one needs. He is a good athlete, especially in football and track, and is interested in every sport. He is captain of the track team and we hope to win the state championship again this year. In science, he is a wizard and especially along electrical lines. We all know that he will make good.

VIRGINIA SNYDER

Freshman Literary Society, 1; Melody Makers, 2; Athletic Association, 2, 3; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Melé Club, 4; Assistant Social Editor of "Ramhler," 4.

"Drink to me only with thine eyes."

Virginia, always ready for fun, is a good sport and a true and faithful friend. She is always in demand for she is such a favorite. Here's to you, Virginia, may your popularity in school be only a beginning to a success you will score when your school days are over.

BLANCHE ELIZABETH SPENCER

"Chicken"

Savannah High School, 1, 2, 3.

"She is true and sweet and one is happy to be near her."

Blanche is a true friend and a good sport, good natured and smiling, and always ready for fun. Her pretty face and sweet unselfish disposition will win her many friends wherever she may go. Though we have had her with us only a year, we all love her dearly and she has won hosts of friends in school.

OLIVE SPENCER

Freshman Literary Club, 1; Dramatic Club, 2; "Scribble and Scrawl," 4; Melé Club, 4.

"They are never alone
That are accompanied with noble thoughts."

Does she look sophisticated and serious? Don't believe it because she is one of the jolliest, sweetest, little Seniors you ever knew. Have you ever noticed that the little folks of the class are nearly always "smart"? Well, we can say that she is smart. She dreams tho, and if you are in any of her classes you will notice how often she has to be brought back to earth by her teachers. May her life be as happy as her dreams.

ERVIN MORRISON STAFFORD

"Stafford"

"To me, my friend, you never can be old."

"Stafford" is a good "all-round" student and a credit to any school. Then, too, he is a good foot and a half player. He is always happy except when studying English and is always ready to help the other fellow.

We wish him continued success at work and at play.

JOHN SPRINGS STAFFORD

Sharon High School, 1, 2, 3.

"Mirth, with thee I mean to live."

John is a boy of very high standards, one upon whom we may depend to do things right. His dependability, uprightness, and all his other sterling qualities tend to make his friendship sought for and valued.

EVA LOUISE SUTHER

Dramatic Club, 1.

"It's nice to be natural, if you are naturally nice."

We all love Louise, for who could help it? She is a person who always brings happiness into the lives of others, and at all times is a most true friend. She is dependable and sincere and is held high in the hearts of all her classmates.

WILLIAM TATE

"Bill"

Secretary and Treasurer of Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Washington Irving Literary Society, 3; Member "Rambler" Staff, 4.

"Smile and I'll smile with you;
But weep, and you'll weep alone."

Everybody knows Bill, and everyone who has associated with him can vouch for his good nature, true friendship, and conscientious manner. He has a determination that will carry him on through life and help him make a name for himself. His many good qualities make him indispensable to us.

BROOKE B. TODD, JR.

"Brookie"

Circulation Manager of "Rambler," 3, 4; Comic Editor of Snips and Cuts, 4; President Hi-Y Club, 2; Hi-Y Club, 3, 4; Cheer Leader, 3; Dramatic Club, 2; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3; Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Tennis, 4; Glee Club, 2.

"Talent and ambition are met in thee."

Ever since Brooke entered our school he has taken part in all of the class activities. And to our way of thinking he certainly has held up the standard of the old C. H. S. spirit. He is the source of endless energy, and deserves no little amount of credit for his work as cheer leader. And it is with a degree of pride that we call his name among the graduates, for we know that he is bound to make good. So here's to you Brooke, we are all for you.

MORRIS TROTTER

"Trotter"

"Worth makes the man."

Not every one that entereth college halls and matriculateth entitleth himself to be calleth a student, friend, and gentleman, but "Trotter" has demonstrated that all these noble qualities may be confined in one, and make a MAN. He leaves behind him at C. H. S. a record of which no one need be ashamed and many would be glad to claim. As a student, he has always been serious-minded and diligent, acquitting himself well in all his work.

RALPH E. TRUESDELL, JR.

"Ralph"

Debating and Declaming Club, 2; Radio Club, 2; Triangular Debating Team, 2, 4; Declaimer, 3; Senior Debating Club, 4.

"But sure with patience it can bear
A loss C. H. S. ne'er can know."

Ralph entered school with the ambition to make the football squad and debating team. He did not make the football team because of his weight, but his determination won him the admiration of the school. He embodies the essentials of a real citizen.

RUTH MAY TRUESDELL

Sophomore Dramatic Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Debating Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 4; Latin Club, 4.

"To those who know thee not, no words can paint;
And those who know thee, know all words are faint."

Ruth is a smart, good-natured girl and can always be depended upon. She is a loyal student, giving her very best to every task. The ability of making a success of everything which she undertakes seemed to be one of the many virtues that Ruth possesses. Her many friends in the faculty and student body wish her the best success ever.

RALPH ROLAND TURNER, JR.

"Dainty"

Richmond Academy, 1; Abbeville High School, 2, 3; Pi Lambda Chi, 4.

Roland came to us from Abbeville High School of South Carolina, and has shown us that he is a credit to our ranks. We predict for him the same success that has characterized his efforts in C. H. S.

JOE WATKINS

"Joe"

Basketball, 4; Athletic Association, 2, 3, 4; Baseball, 3, 4; Football, 3, 4.

"Who broke no promise, served no private end,
Who gained no title, and lost no friend."

Joe has taken part in practically every sport at C. H. S. In baseball he is most versatile. He is a true blue supporter of all activities in which we participate. Joe combines the desirable qualities of a hard worker, true friend and a pleasant smile. Success will surely crown his efforts in whatever he undertakes in life.

OLIN PHARR WEARN

"Dutch"

Secretary and Treasurer Class, 1; Tar Heel Literary Society, 1; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3; Naturalist Club, 2; Advertising Manager "Rambler," 4; Orchestra, 4.

Dutch is a type of boy that is liked by every one. He is serious enough to realize the importance of the high school work, but yet, he possesses a keen sense of humor that everyone admires. Dutch is a leader in all activities and he is deeply interested in his school. His ambition is to become an eminent physician, but we are likely to find him following the trade of a butcher in a score of years from now.

FRANKLIN STAFFORD WEARN

"Pig"

Tar Heel Literary Society, 1; Captain Class Basketball, 1; Manager Class Basketball, 2; Naturalist Club, 2; Football Squad, 3, 4; Varsity Football, 4; Varsity Baseball, 3, 4; "C" Club, 4; Hi-Y Club, 2, 3, 4; President Hi-Y Club, 3; President Class (first semester), 4; Editor-in-Chief Snips and Cuts, 4; Marshal, 3; Chairman Recreation Committee of Student Council.

"Mirth, admit me of thy crew."

Pig is as true a friend as any one can desire. His humorous nature is always present. His business ability has been ably demonstrated to us by his experiences in high school. He is an excellent scholar but is not of that type which knows not how to enjoy life other than in study. Pig possesses great athletic ability. His character is of the finest to be found. He is a boy admired by all, especially by the girls. His ambition is to become an eminent physician, but we are likely to find him following the trade of an assistant butcher in a score of years from now.

CLAIR THELMA WEBB

"Tate"

Literary Society, 1, 2; Commercial Club, 3.

"She is a phantom of delight
When first she gleams on your sight."

Tate has been with us all four years, and we feel that we could not do our lessons unless she were in the classroom. You can tell by her long, tapering fingers that playing the piano is her hobby. You have heard that a true friend comes from those who talk less. Well, Tate is a real, true friend. Here is wishing her success.

CHARLES IRVIN WEST

"Charlie"

Warren Easton Boys' High School, New Orleans; Sidney Lanier High School, Montgomery, Alabama.

"May success in the future
With no regret for the past
Go with the place in life
Into which you are cast."

Charles Irvin West or "Charlie" as he is called, has made a fine record here at old Central High. He is an especially fine mathematical student. He does everything with the best of his ability. Such perseverance and determination to succeed as are his, will most assuredly amount to something. Well, here are our best wishes to Charlie.

ALYCE RUTH WHITE

"Rufus"

Freshman Club, 1; Literary Society, 2; Camp Fire Girls, 2; President, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3; Salesmanship Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 4.

"A smile for all, a greeting glad,
A lovable, jolly way she had."

Rufus is jolly, good-natured and always bright and smiling. Many's the time her laugh has cheered us. She has never seen a cloud without a silver lining. Her friendship once obtained is never lost, for she is most loyal.

SUE WHITENER

"Sue Dear"

Spartanburg High, 1, 2; Secretary Debating Club, 4; Latin Club, 4.

"It is a good thing to be rich, and a good thing to be strong,
But it is a better thing to be beloved by many friends."

We are very much indebted to Spartanburg High for "Sue Dear." For she is a good sport, a fine comrade and a true friend, and never too busy to help in whatever comes up. Her talent lies in reciting, and many a time she has entertained us in chapel and "home room." You have missed a great deal if you have not known Sue intimately.

VIRGINIA WILLIAMS

"Gingin"

Literary Society, 1; Dramatic Club, 2.

"If music be the food of life, play on."

Gold is her hair and shines; so does the gold of her personality cheer many of her friends. She is talented, quiet, and conscientious, trying to do all things to the best of her ability—and succeeding.

Virginia is a musician of much ability, but unlike most of them, she does not vent her annoyance at trifles upon her friends. Yes, "Gingin" is a friend worth having and one we shall miss.

EDWARD WILSON

"Ed"

Varsity Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Varsity Football, 2, 3, 4; Letter Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club, 1, 2; Jew Derby Club, 1, 2; Literary Society, 3; Magazine Club, 2; Annual Minstrel, 2, 3, 4; "Rambler" Staff, 4.

"Silence persuades when speaking fails."

We find Ed a very versatile fellow. He does everything anybody could do in High School, from playing football to writing plays and acting them. His striking voice and his ability as an actor have made many a show a great success. He is a great success in athletics not only because of his muscular skill but mainly because of his brilliant brain work. Ed is admired by every one because of his clean qualities and his interest in all activities.

Strips and Cuts of 'XXIV

EDWARD WOOLF

"Eddie"

Summerville High School, 1, 2, 3.

"I think; therefore, I am."

Coming to us in our Senior year with his studied indifference to all things which are not the result of thought, Eddie strikes us as being a worthy candidate for the best things of life; so, good luck to you.

JEANE WOLFE

Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Dramatic Club, 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Melé Club, 4.

"None knew her but to love her;
None named her but to praise."

A true blond is Jeane and a sweet girl, too. We all love Jeane in High School and know that she will be loved wherever she goes. Jeane is a good sport and a fine, true friend. Good luck to you, Jeane.

ALICE WHITE WOODSIDE

President Freshman Club; Athletic Association, 1, 2, 3; Treasurer "Melody Makers," 2; Girls' High School Club, 2, 3, 4; Chairman Program Committee Girls' Club.

"She's pretty, she's modest, sincere and true,
More studious, more generous than any of you."

Alice is always "right there with the stuff." She will be missed "heaps" when she has gone because a more sincere and truer friend can't be found. Her beauty is one of her chief attractions, and those eyes! She can always be depended upon except when her thoughts wander to . . . ! ? !

ANNIE MAE WOOTEN

"Skinnie"

Freshman Club, 1; Junior High Club, 2; Literary Society, 2; Commercial Club, 4.

"Secret laughter tickles all my soul."

Does she look sad? Don't believe it. Skinnie, though small, makes herself heard. Her originality and independence often afford amusement for all. Skinnie says what she means and means what she says, so we always know her opinion is frankly given. She carries to a finish everything she undertakes, and is very enthusiastic in every branch of high school life—mischievous, of course being included—while her rare good nature and bubbling laughter endear her to the entire class.

DOROTHY SINCLAIR YATES

"Clair"

Girls' Club, 2, 3, 4; Washington Irving Literary Society, 1; Modern Drama Club, 2; Marshal, 3; Basketball Squad, 4; Latin Club, 4; Home Economics Club, 4; Assistant Secretary and Treasurer of Latin Club, 4; Athletic Association, 1, 2.

"A comrade blithe and full of glee,
Who dares to laugh out loud and free."

Clair is as good a friend as any would want. She is a good sport and full of fun. She keeps everyone around her dying laughing with the witty remarks, but Clair is not always carefree, for she is one of the brightest in her class and makes good. So when you're looking for a good-all-around friend, take "Clair," she's true blue.

ALTA LEE YELVINGTON

"Alta"

Junior High School, 1; Alexander Graham High School, 2; C. F. G. Club, 2; Melody Maker's Club, 2; Girls' Reserve, 1; Girls' High School Club, 1, 2, 3.

"I strove with none, for none was worth my strife; Nature I loved, and, next to nature, Art."

To know Alta is to have the acquaintance of a true and worthy friend—that will stick to her pal. Her ambition is as sterling as her steadfastness, and we have no doubt that she will make wonderful use of her talents in music and art. Is Alta one of these "stuck-up, old-maidish things?" Let me tell you a secret—she's a regular tom-boy, sometimes.

CLASS POEM

It would never do for a class, such as ours
To go down in history unsung,
So we will call to the Muse and sharpen the lead
And consider the task begun.

When our class first came to this noble school
As fresh as the morning dew,
We were timid and backward, and full of fear,
For every thing seemed so new.

It seemed that we never could reach our goal
And stand upon the top;
Oft times we have felt like giving up,
Almost ready to stop.

But we started to work, with a spirit to win
And let nothing set us aside.
Year in and year out we labored and toiled
With the faculty as our guide.

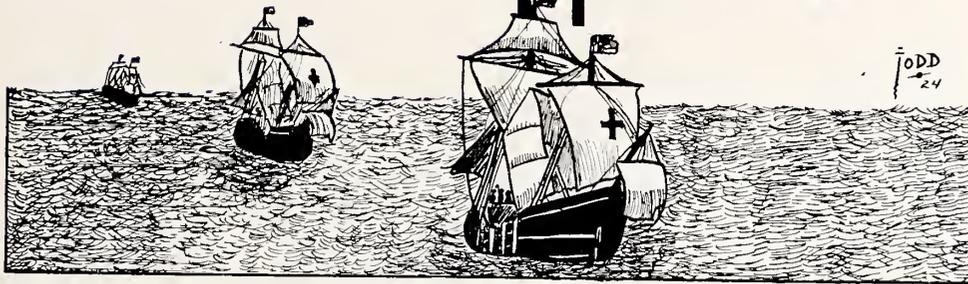

From your vast sea of wondrous knowledge
Generously to us you gave,
And our memory and true love for you
Will follow us to the grave.

And so to thee and your halls of learning
I ask that you let me say,
We wish to thank you for all that you've done
And our truest tributes pay.

For time has passed and the day draws near
When we must say goodbye;
It is with no little sorrow that we depart
From you, old Central High.

HISTORY

A HISTORY let it be. In order to be a history it must be a narrative of what civilized men have thought or done in past time. This will be a narrative of our tender years, bringing us from the hazy plane of childhood to the enlightened summit of men; similarly did the primitive man rise through the ages, overcoming like obstacles but finally attaining this, his present civilized estate. Throughout this history let us compare these and show how alike they are—how we have struggled and have in a small way undergone the hardships of the ages in these short eleven years, resulting in the highest type of Modern Civilization.

Prehistoric time would be a good starting place but since that covers such a vast period of time—seven years in this history, in our thoughts and behavior seven hundred years—let us divide it into three periods: The Old Stone Age or Primary Age, the New Stone Age or Elementary Age, and the Age of Metals, our Freshman Age. Our first camping ground was Alexander Graham High. During this old Stone Age we were indeed very primitive, having nothing but our brains and food to protect us from the wild animals—Reading, 'Riting and 'Rithmetic, which we met on every side. Our first tools and weapons were those that lay ready—a branch from a tree served as a spear (how many have felt that branch), stone picked up at random were thrown as missiles or used to crack nuts. We spent much of our time outdoors, staying inside only when compelled to. Having prepared our minds a little more we passed into the New Stone Age. Little is know of this period, our chief source of knowledge being derived from old writings, hardly legible but in some instances able to be translated, which we have found in old vaults, hidden in dark corners of old dwelling places. This Age covered only a brief space of time compared to its predecessor but it was an age of rapid progress. It was a "Survival of the fittest," many having fallen by the way and some still groping in the darkness of the Old Stone Age. Our leaders—otherwise teachers—were new each year. In a very few cases a leader stayed with us two years, but for the most part they were willing to pass us along to the next leader. Overcoming many obstacles we at last reached a new era, the Age of Metals. Civilization rests on the metals and in this period—our Freshman year—we found this to be quite true. This fact at length penetrated our minds, after having been the target for many talks delivered by our revered High Supreme Leader Fred B. McCall. The effects of this age began to show in the next ages; those having studied these metals thoroughly—under the capable instruction of Leader Cornie Fore, Leader Charlee Hutchison and several others—were best able to cope with the problems of higher civilization. The world at that time paid little attention to our efforts; nevertheless we had risen steadily. One of the greatest assets we had acquired was the art of self-control.

Our next great step to our goal, Modern Civilization, was—let's term it the Ancient Age, our Sophomore Age. It is ancient in two respects—first, looking back now upon those happy days they seem to us to be very ancient; and second, at that time we considered ourselves old or ancient, which indeed we were in comparison with those Prehistoric Ages. High Supreme Leader McCall, being summoned to other fields, we came under the efficient command of High Supreme Leader Dr. E. H. Garinger. One of the many beliefs of this Leader was that different people had different talents. With that as a basis, he formed quite a few bands, so-called Clubs. Everyone of the tribe had to belong to some one of these bands. They proved a great success and everyone heartily enjoyed them. Indeed, although High Supreme Leader Garinger changed our entire régime, we benefited by it. Regardless of the fact that the world had not yet given us our rightful places, we had grown much in knowledge and we knew that we must soon be recognized.

The next rung in our ladder of progress was the Medieval Age (folks of the twentieth century would doubtless call it our Junior Year). A new element had entered our midst—many of our number were overcome with a desire to explore new lands. After they had pestered all the high leaders to distraction it was decided that a band would be sent out for the express purpose of occupying new territory. The trustworthy Aubrey Elliott was deemed best fitted to engineer this momentous undertaking. With due ceremony the rank of High Supreme Leader was conferred upon him. And now for the journey! Oh, the heartache and woe of that parting day! With High Supreme Leader Elliott at our head we successfully traversed the dangerous paths, Tryon and Trade; navigated the awe-inspiring Sugar Creek and set up a camp which we called Central High. We were beginning to gain our rightful places, we had acquired courage in ourselves—who were first to approve of student government. Messages from our old home, Alexander Graham, were few and far between. We did find though, that the left behinds had developed quite a literary taste, insofar that they had by diligent effort established a rather complete library. It made us Centralites feel rather crude for we boasted a Library sans books. But the light of Central High could not be dimmed, many of our number having blossomed out as songsters, musicians and histrionic characters. This age closed containing many important events and we entered upon our next age with joy in our hearts.

The top of our ladder has been reached! The much-desired hard-worked for Modern Civilization has been attained. Our camp at Central High was more than flourishing. Imagine our extreme delight when we received dispatches proclaiming that the rest of our tribe, which had remained at Alexander Graham, were coming to inhabit our new territory, Central High. Leaders Downs and Henderson struggled heroically to implant some literary taste in us. Those people whose paths led them through the forest of Math have been skilfully pulled through by Leaders Donnelly, Moore, Kelley and Reid. The wilderness, Chemistry, has been explored; this experimenting band following the capable instruction of Leader Martin. Leader Stevens found that we were a fairly intelligent bunch, the majority recognizing A from Z. Our language band, both foreign and dead,—indeed we have become quite cosmopolitan—were ably directed by Leaders Smith and Grier. Leader Cornie Fore unaided, led the onslaught on History. How many battles did we fight over again, how many laws were re-enacted in that daily forty-five minutes! Football! That expedition fought its way to the front, led by fighting Dick Kirkpatrick. The goal of championship was our greatest victory. Basketball and Track follow in its path and were uproaring successes. Our community was most fortunate in having a group of Christian workers, the Billy Sunday party, come to us and speak to us on many occasions. We feel that they have helped us to become better civilized American citizens.

Our diplomas! magic word—who does not know what that means? We are at last civilized and modernized. We are the examples of the youth of America and we are able to carry on that banner of progress.

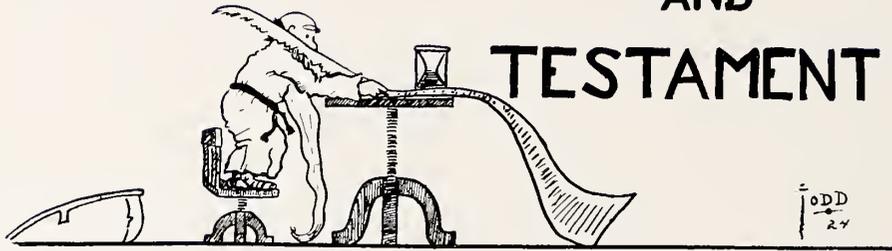

And now, dear friends, have I shown you the value of education, how it uplifts one morally, mentally and physically? Yet there are some in our midst who do not feel prepared to attack the problems of this modern world. They plan to enter those worthy institutions, colleges, so that they may spend four or more years in further preparation. They realize that the more they put into a proposition the more they get out of it.

Thus closes the eventful career of the Class of 1924. Some day there will be more to add to this list of deeds and since they will be deeds of the Class of '24, they will be great deeds.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA ) COUNTY OF MECKLENBURG ) ss.
CITY OF CHARLOTTE )

THOMAS MOORE CRAIG
Attorney-at-Law.

WE, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-Four of Charlotte High School in the said city, county, and state becoming fully cognizant that we are about to depart from this life, and to travel the highways of a new and strange world: being of a full mind and sound body: and knowing that our most cherished possessions of this life must be left to those who remain on this mundane sphere, we do hereby make and publish our Last Will and Testament, revoking and making void all former wills made heretofore by us.

As we take our flight to distant lands we ask that our funeral be conducted by our friends, the Faculty, and all loved ones left behind.

First. We do appoint and direct our most worthy friends, the Freshmen, to act as our lawful executors and to carry out each item according to its true meaning and intention.

Second. We do hereby will and bequeath to the Juniors all our possessions that will be needful to them as the rising Senior class, namely:

- (a) Our numerous Senior privileges.
- (b) The right to run the school as we have done.
- (c) Also the right to publish one Annual, commonly known as the SNIPS AND CUTS, and a school paper The Rambler.

Third. We do hereby will our inexhaustible amount of School Spirit to the Sophomore Class.

Fourth. We do hereby will to the Freshman Class our invaluable and abundant store of knowledge, which we have obtained through the united efforts of our foster parents, the Faculty.

Ships and Cuts of 'XXIV

Fifth. To the Student Body and Faculty as a whole we do bequeath the thoughts of the many happy hours of association. May our school grow and prosper during the coming decades.

Sixth. We bequeath the good looks of the Senior boys to the Junior boys, believing that it should be bequeathed where it is needed most.

Seventh. We do bequeath to the School Board all scarred and marred desks and ask that they be left as monuments to us, and inspiration to the rising generations.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the Senior Class, do set our hand and seals this fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four.

THOMAS MOORE CRAIG, Attorney.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the Senior Class as and for their Last Will and Testament, in our presence; and we, at their request, and in the presence of each other, have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses on the day above mentioned.

Signed by the individual members of the Senior Class. This 18th day of May, 1924.

THOS. M. CRAIG,
Lawyer.

LAST week I received a wireless message from my good friends, King Rupert and Queen Chorinda, asking me to visit them in the quaint little province of Futurania, over which they rule. I immediately got in my aeroplane and in a few hours I arrived at their picturesque domain, which lies on the other side of the silver sands of Dreamland and the Sea of Memories.

I received a warm welcome and was indeed surprised at the beauty and splendor of the castle. (This was my first visit to Futurania.) The King and Queen seemed very distressed, however, because the entertainers for the night had failed to arrive, and there would be nothing to do until the Royal Ball the next night. I assured them that we could find amusement a-plenty by looking over the kingdom, but as night fell, so did a torrent of rain and we were unable to leave the palace.

We sat around a roaring fire in a large banquet hall and in the course of conversation I remarked, "Since we are graduating from high school this year, I don't think anything would gratify my curiosity as much as to know the future of everyone in the Class of '24."

At that the King laughed heartily, "Ho! Ho!" he roared, "Why didn't you think of that before? Nothing could be easier."

"Easier?" I asked. "I think that would be extremely difficult. Only time will tell."

"Here," said Rupert, "we have a mirror which tells you more quickly than time."

"Yes," added the Queen, "you merely have to think about the person you want to see and his image appears before you. At the bottom of the mirror is a blank space and this gives the explanation of each one as you would see it written in the movies."

"How perfectly grand!" I exclaimed. "I can't wait to see it work!"

The king and queen then led me into another gorgeously decorated room, and on one side I saw a huge mirror, but it reflected only the furniture of the room.

"Is that it?" I inquired doubtfully.

Ships and Cuts of 'XXIV

I obeyed instructions and Stafford Wearn, our class president for the first semester, came to my mind. Immediately on the mirror the White House at Washington appeared. The scene shifted to a large room inside where a group of distinguished-looking persons were seated around a table. The explanation read: "President Robert McMillan holds a conference with his newly-appointed cabinet of which the Honorable Stafford Wearn is Secretary of State." I could not think of anything more wonderful, but I was very anxious to find out if anyone else in our class was so famous. I next thought of Tommy Craig, and to my surprise, the scene was still in Washington, but this time in the Senate Chamber at the Capitol. Sure enough, Tommy Craig was speaking. The explanation said that Senator Thomas Craig, of North Carolina, was one of the most brilliant men of the times, and his series of debates had been of nation-wide interest. It also mentioned Ralph Truesdell as a famous statesman. While I was still marveling at this, I glanced over the room and saw Clara Davis Porter. As I thought of her, I looked at the explanation and read, "Miss Clara Davis Porter has the honor of being the first woman senator from North Carolina." I was so overcome that I hurried on to some one else.

Next, I thought of Mary Lee Nuchols, Mary Mills Ham, and Helen Hardie. The mirror reflected a ship on peaceful waters and I found that Misses Nuchols, Ham and Hardie with Messrs. Val Guthery, John Yarbrough, Carr Purser, and Martin Crawford, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Buck, had left the United States four days previous for a trip around the world. While in England they would be presented to the King and Queen, after which they would visit Ambassador John Paul Lucas, Jr., at the American Embassy in London. From there they were to go to Paris to attend the Olympic Games in which Sara Couch, Edith Dudley, Ludella Sheally, Clair Yates, Phillip Gallagher, Worth Morris, and Vernon Ausband were to represent the United States. After having passed through Egypt, they expected to see Mr. and Mrs. Olin Nesbit, who I found were spending their honeymoon at Biskra.

Louise Hutchison next came to my mind and immediately on the mirror there was reflected a roaring fire, rapidly consuming a house. I gasped in horror when I saw the flames and hoped that no one in our class had met a fate so cruel as this! I then saw someone emerge from the thickest of the smoke, and later learned that it was "Hutchie." She was the Chief of the Charlotte Fire Department, and had been awarded many medals for bravery. This department was as large as New York City is today. When I thought of Allan Chrisman, I found that he was Governor of North Carolina. I also learned that George Rose, the great electrical wizard, had just returned from a visit to Charlotte Milstead, Jeane Wolfe and Elizabeth Fowler, who were all happily married, their respective husbands having been students at Davidson College. Virginia Snyder, Isabel Pharr, and Virginia Kelley had returned home for a brief visit, after having won great fame and success as movie actresses. Lewis Burwell, Wallace Bradford, Hueling Davis and Lyles Boyd, the noted Harmony Quartette, were one of the biggest hits of the season appearing on the Keith Circuit. Sue Whitner was another popular member on the same bill. Sam McNinch was Chief of Police of Charlotte, and George Dudley held the same office in Winston. These chiefs, I found, were doing great work in helping good-looking young ladies across congested street corners. Brooke Todd and Paul Barkley were the best known cartoonists of the day, far excelling George McManus, Bud Fisher, etc.

When I thought of Ednah Carson, a beautiful lake, thronged with ducks appeared. I learned that Ednah had made duck-shooting the foremost sport of America, and that no season was complete without several hunts. She had a lovely estate upon this very lake and many guests enjoyed her hospitalities. The glimpse into the future revealed Kate Caldwell in China, where she and her able assistant, Josephine Houston, were organizing Chinese Young Women's Associations. Ed Wilson was singing in a beautiful opera, "Isabel and Mildred," which he himself composed. A revelation was made that Johnny Garrison and Heleah Porter were living in New York, where Johnny was engaged in social welfare work, and Heleah was meeting with great success as an interior decorator. I also found that Miriam Shell was president of a large business school in Chicago.

While I thus sat gazing with wonder at the illustrious deeds of my classmates, the Queen touched me on the shoulder very gently.

"My dear," she said, "I hate to arouse you, but it is long past midnight. I am afraid that you will be too sleepy to attend the ball tomorrow night if you do not soon retire."

"Can't I have one look at my own future before I go to bed?" I begged.

"No one can see his own future," she responded, "but if you wait until tomorrow I will find it out for you."

"Your Majesty," I said, "you can't imagine how much I have enjoyed seeing the future of all of my friends. I could hardly wait to see the mirror work, and now I can't wait to see it all come true."

HAZEL HUNTER,
Class Prophetess.

LULA HARRIS

"COACH"

The one word, athletics, stirs the hearts of all true Americans when even thought of, and every time athletics is brought to the minds of Charlotte High School students, the thought of "Coach"—implying Mr. C. D. Kirkpatrick—immediately enters our minds. His work as head coach of all high school athletics in this city has raised the standards of both athletes and athletics. He has put the fighting spirit in all of our teams and he has allowed no team other than a clean, square and hard-fighting team represent us. No one could ever appreciate the interest and work in athletics taken by any one more than we appreciate Mr. Kirkpatrick's instruction and interest in our athletics.

CHEER LEADERS

YELLS OF C. H. S.

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7!

All good children go to Heaven
When they get there they will say,
Charlotte High School sure can play!

Stand em on the grand stand!
Push 'em through the gate!
Charlotte High School
Champions of the State!

Ripity! Ripity! Rust!
We're not allowed to cuss
But nevertheless we must confess that We're the champs from C. H. S.

1, 2, 3, 4,

3, 2, 1, 4,

Whom are we for Charlotte, Charlotte, Charlotte!

Your rep! your rep!
You're got it, now keep it,
Doggone it, don't lose it—
Your rep! your rep!

When you're up, you're up!
When you're down you're down;
But when you're up against Charlotte
High,

You're upside down!

Boom Chica boom! Boom Chica boom!
Boom chica, rica chica! Boom; Boom;
Boom!

Team! Team! Rah! Rah!

Rome, Caesar, Cicero, Gaul;
Charlotte High School beats them all!

Charlotte High! Here's to you
Charlotte High! You're so true.
You're the best old school I know
A darned good place to go;
You bet, we'll fight for you.

Charlotte High! Eat 'em up!
Charlotte High! Beat 'em up!
We'll give them a dose of ale
Ride them home upon a rail
For we're from Charlotte High!

Wash 'em out!
Ring 'em out,
Hang 'em on the line!
Charlotte High School
Any old time.

Charlotte boys are high-minded!
B'lieve my soul they're double-jointed!
They play ball and don't mind it!
All day long!

Here's to Charlotte High School, High School we'll sing,
Now all together, praises we'll ring
Rah! Rah! Rah!
We've got the pep that gave us the rep,
That made us the best of all!
Cheer! Cheer! Cheer!
Repeat.....

Ice water!
Cold water!
Hot water!
Steam!
Charlotte High's
Football team!

Ray! Ray! Rah! Rah!
Charlotte! Charlotte! Charlotte!

Char-r-r-lotte!
Char-r-r-lotte!
Hold! Hold! Hold!

FOOTBALL SONG

Tune: "Washington and Lee Swing."

Oh, when those Charlotte wild-cats fall in line,
We're going to win that game another time;
We're going to fight, fight, fight for every yard;
We're going to circle those ends and hit that line right hard;
We're going to roll old . . . on the sod;
We're going to catch that old team off its guard;
And everyone must fight to do his part;
Hit them hard—for C. H. S.

Tune: "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Cheer the team as it comes on the field;
It's a team that will never yield;
Our line is as strong as a wall,
And our team will keep the ball;
Our backfield is full of vim,
And our men are always in fighting trim;
So let's be true until the end,
And to old Charlotte High School,
C. H. S. forever.

CHARLOTTE HIGH WINS N. C. FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

STARTING a mediocre season of ups and downs, the Charlotte "Wildcats" literally battled their way to the North Carolina Football Championship. Never in the history of the State has a team displayed such grit, such spirit, such determination to win, as did the fiery charges of Coach Dick Kirkpatrick when they once started their championship drive towards Chapel Hill. The team was a combination of weight, speed, brains and ability, being exactly balanced in each of these essentials. The backfield was made up of experienced high school players, who, although being somewhat light, are capable of picking their way through almost any line. The line averaged 170 pounds from tackle to tackle, and in it are several boys who would do credit to any college team. The ends are light, but have been well taught to drive their plays in and are very adaptable at catching passes. Into this machine-like gridiron combination Coach Kirkpatrick instilled the spirit that will win any football game. The Charlotte team of 1923 didn't know what the word "quit" meant. It was overflowing with the famous never-say die spirit and at every moment of the game the Charlotte team was "heads up" fighting for the ball. Several times during the season and notably in two of their championship games, Asheville and Sanford, they were trailing at the end of the first half, but when they came back for that second half, they swept everything before them. Nothing could withstand the attack of the fighting, determined "Wildcats." In their minds was one thought and that thought was victory, and victory was not denied them.

To Dick Kirkpatrick, Coach of the Charlotte team, goes the lion's share of the glory in the victory that brought the championship of the State to rest in Charlotte for the first time in six years. At the beginning of the season the team didn't impress critics as being especially good, but through Coach Kirkpatrick's untiring efforts it triumphed over an excellent field of 40 high schools.

In looking over Charlotte's seasonal record we find that they won nine games, lost two, and tied one, one game being cancelled due to the death of an opposing player. They scored 290 points to their opponents 40. They were beaten by only one high school team in the State and this by a score of 7 to 6. Later on during the season this same team, Monroe, was decisively defeated in Charlotte by the score of 13 to 0, and then in Monroe, in a game for the Western Championship of the State, 13 to 7. The other defeat was at the hands of the Davidson Freshmen when they took a long chance in the last three minutes of play and hurled a pass over the goal line for the only score of the game.

While playing a game in Winston, Charlotte was the unfortunate opponent for the High School that bore the only fatal injury in the State.

Trips and Cuts of 'XXIV

This injury came when Charlotte and Winston, the friendliest of athletic rivals, were playing the greatest and hardest-fought game ever staged on Hanes Field. Winston was leading at the time 3 to 0, but Charlotte had already started her fierce attack that always ended in victory. This accident demoralized the team. There wasn't anything felt so far and wide as the death of Leo Caldwell, one of the best fullbacks in the State. Winston's team cancelled its schedule at this time and for a time it looked as if Charlotte would be forced to do the same thing. Public sentiment was against football, but through the efforts of several men who took a better view of the situation, it was resumed. In the next game Charlotte proved that it could beat even greater opposition than an opposing team when with a crippled line-up, and a demoralized frame of mind, it defeated the team that had previously beaten them.

With this as a background, the championship was fittingly won over the Eastern rivals when Charlotte staged the most spectacular come-back ever seen in high school football.

The line-up and weights of the players were as follows:

SWAN SONG

"Thank the Lord! that thing is over! cried three tired voices in unison as they once more donned their shirts and collars, took up another notch in their belts, and prepared to sell out. Free at last! No more will they have to climb the stairs of the Observer Printing House; no more will they have to hunt advertising plates; no more will they have to miss meals on account of that confound book.

They have worked hard and tried to give you the best annual ever. They have taken a sign once seen in a barber shop which read, "If you don't like our work, tell us; if you do like our work, tell your friends," and revised it so that it reads: "If you like our work, tell us; if you don't like it, tell the marines."

But putting all seriousness aside, they hope you will like the SNIPS AND CUTS and it will recall in your old age some pleasant memories of old C. H. S.

In evaporating they wish to extend thanks to several persons, who, through their untiring efforts, have made it possible for them to publish this book, foremost of whom are: Mr. Leonard C. Cooke, photographer, Charlotte; Mr. J. J. Sher and Mr. C. B. Dryden, Bureau of Engraving, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mr. B. R. Cates, Mr. L. C. Boyer and Mr. L. W. Hutchins, Observer Printing House, Charlotte.

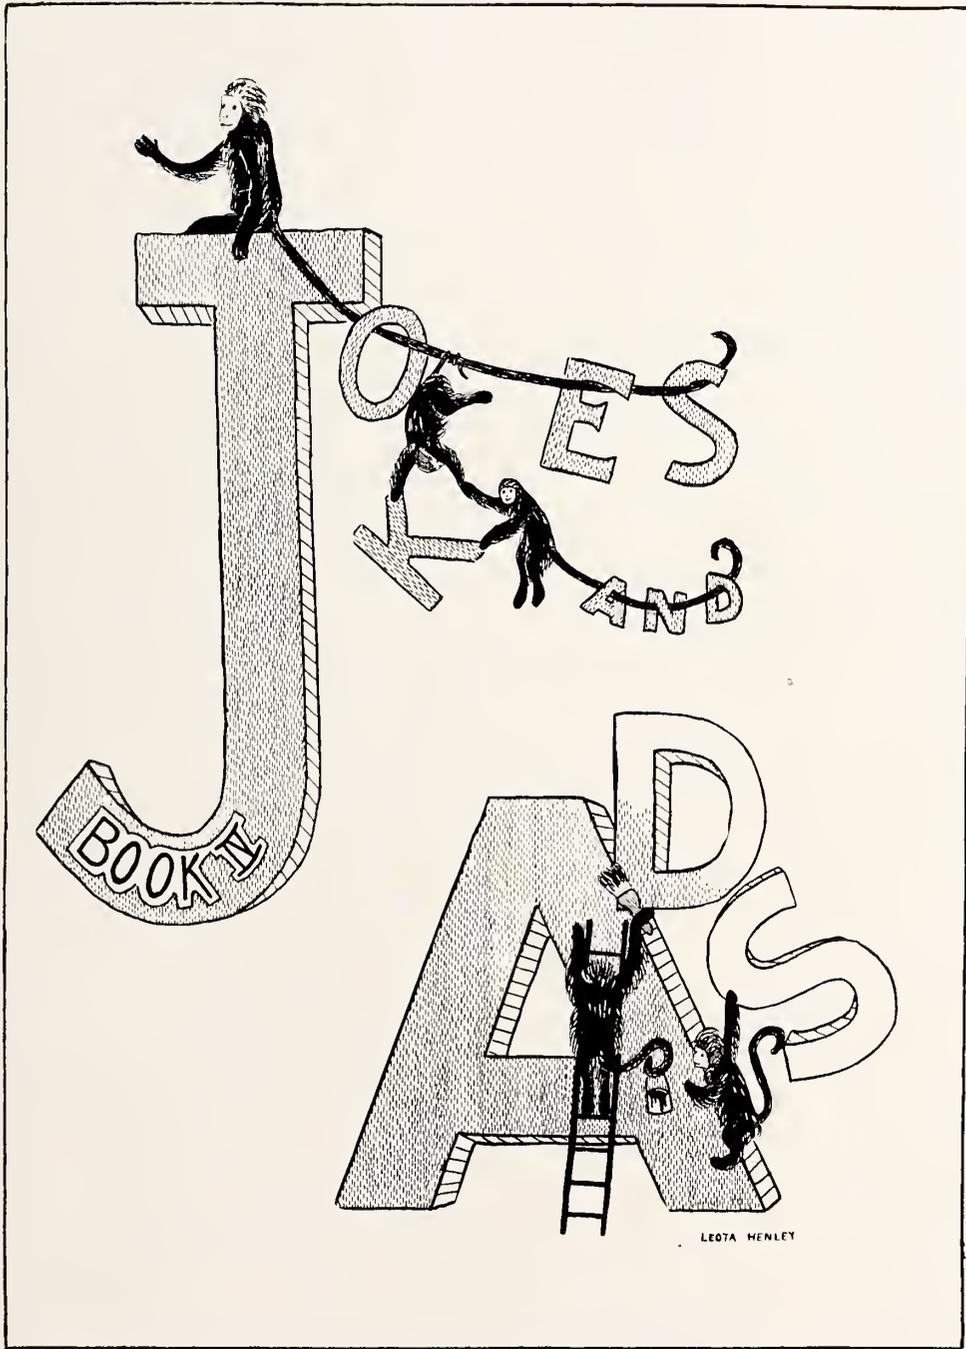

Now, if there are any unpropitious remarks regarding this publication, do not make them in the presence of

Snips and Cuts of XXIV

Frantic Guest (appearing in doorway in deshabelle): "A man has jumped from the twentieth story window!"

Elevator Boy (stifling a yawn): "Why didn't he wait, the poor dud. I'd have taken him down."

* * *

"Papa, why did you marry mamma?"

"Hello, my boy, is it beginning to puzzle you also?"

* * *

The Judge: "This lady says you tried to speak to her at the station."

"Sleep" Shelton: "It was a mistake. I was looking for my room-mate's girl, whom I had never seen before, but who'd been described to me as a handsome blond with classic features, fine complexion, perfect figure, beautifully dressed, and—!—!"

The Witness: "I don't care to prosecute the gentleman. Any one might have made the same mistake."

* * *

George: "Where are you going?"

Allen: "Chemistry exam."

George: "Going to take the acid test, eh?"

* * *

Tony Eddy: "The German marks are very low."

Harry Schwartz: "They're no lower than mine."

* * *

Boshi: "Wanna go on a sleighing party?"

Viki: "Whom are we gonna slay?"

* * *

A fortune awaits the man who can put a permanent wave in the American flag.

* * *

CRUSHING

"Mrs. Clansy, yer child is badly spoiled."

"Gowan wid yey!"

"Well, if ye don't believe me, come and see what the steam roller did to it."

* * *

Miss Fore: "Give for one year, the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States."

Charles Connelly: "1492; None."

The Brunswick
"Royal" Model

has met with instant public approval

Proven not only by the great number of sales, since we received our first Brunswick "Royal", but by the enthusiastic personal endorsements of every owner.

A beautifully finished large size console model and of a distinctive and graceful style—with the notable Brunswick features which have made the Brunswick the most popular phonograph. Then, too, a most alluring factor is that the Brunswick "Royal" is popularly priced at

Utility Service and Population

Increased utility service means a higher standard of living. Adequate utilities are invariably found in progressive, wide awake, prosperous and growing communities—if the utilities were not adequate the communities could not be progressive and prosperous, and they would not be growing.

The Whole Story is Found in These Facts:

The population of the United States has increased 21 per cent in the past 20 years.

In the past 20 years the demand for street railway service has increased 166 per cent; for gas service 207 per cent; for electric service 2,000 per cent.

See to it that the utilities of your city receive that co-operation and sympathy that is always needed if utility service is to be kept at a high standard.

HELPLESS, HARMLESS AND HOPELESS

There was an old fellow named Crockett
Who parked his false teeth on the shelf
For fear that if left in his pocket
He'd sit down and chew up himself.

It happened in one of those Help-Yourself Joints where the Honor System is supposed to prevail, but where they have Spotters to watch you. You eat what you want and tell the cashier "how much." Sam McNinch walked up to the receiver of the filthy lucre.

"Two bits," he said.

Just then he felt a tap on his shoulder.

"How much?" said the cashier.

"One buck," said Sam, and then turned around.

"Gotta match?" said the fellow behind him.

When you've rushed "Collegiate" women
Till you find out what they are—

When you realize they love you for
Your money or your car.

Then you meet a little girl
Who seems to be just fine.

Who says she doesn't drink or neck,
Or even had a line.

When you've rushed her like a gentleman,
Don't it make you feel a sap;

To run across her sitting on
Some other fellow's lap!

Friend (rushing in to break the news): "Susan, dear, your husband and little Fido were in an accident."

PURELY MEDICAL REASONS

"Now, tell us about it—why did you steal the purse?"

"Your Honor, I won't deceive you—I was ill and thought the change might do me good."

The dying man shook his head tearfully and maintained, "I won't take it, no, Ikey, it tastes awful."

"But, mine dear fren," groaned Ikey, "you can't die and leave all these expensive medicines wasted."

TOO CLOSE

A negro went into a bank down South to get a check cashed. He stood in line a long time and finally his turn came. Just as he got to the window the teller put up a sign: "The Bank is Busted."

The Negro: "What do you mean, the bank is busted?"

Teller: "Well, it is, that's all; its busted—didn't you ever hear of a bank being busted?"

The Negro: "Yes; but I never had one bust right in my face before."

A CHOICE OF EVILS

"Bobby," said the teacher sternly, "do you know that you have broken the eighth commandment by stealing James's apple?"

"Well," explained Bobby, "I might just as well break the eighth and have the apple as to break the tenth and only covet it."

He: "How do you like Shakespeare?"

She: "Oh, all right, but he seems to use such dreadfully worn-out phrases—as "all the world's a stage," and "Alas, poor Yorick!"—Chaparral.

SELF-INDULGENCE

Self-Indulgence frequently dreamed of success but he never got up and went out after it

The fact is, he preferred to spend his hours and money in having a so-called "good time"—little realizing that he was frittering away both his future and his character.

When opportunities appeared, he had neither the cash nor the ambition to seize them.

You, too, are pretty sure never to succeed if you don't start to save until your income is larger, or until you've satisfied some present want. For your sake we urge—DON'T SPEND ALL OF YOUR MONEY.

When you have noticed a man who is particularly well dressed, you don't recall details of style or the color of his clothes. But you do remember the impression they gave you, their effect of smartness. That was due entirely to their cut. That's the thing for which college men choose their clothes. OVERSIGHT OR NEGLECT

It was a sleepy sort of day; the class was about half the usual size and the Professor, was calling the roll in a half absent manner. To each name some one had answered "here" until the name Smith was called. Silence reigned supreme for a moment only to be broken by the Professor's voice.

"My word! Hasn't Mr. Smith any friends here?"

* * *

Following a dinner of savants, a certain professor of psychology thought he would test a colored cloak-attendant as to his memory. Although the professor pretended to have mislaid his check, the boy without hesitation handed him the right hat.

"How did you know this is mine?" asked the learned man.

"Ah don' know dat, suh."

"Then why do you give it to me?"

"Cause you give it to me when you come in, suh."

INDUCING AN ALIBI

"Want to join the Legion, buddy?" asked a Legionnaire of a husky young man of about his own age.

"Can't; wasn't in the service."

"Why weren't you?" the veteran demanded.

"My intentions were good," was the rather reluctant explanation. "I went to a recruiting office where they put me in a room and told me to take off my clothes. A doctor walked up to me, looked at me kinda hard, an' then thumped me on the chest. I wasn't in the habit of letting strangers get rough with me, so I thumped his chest—an' I didn't get out of the hospital until the war was over."

* * *

Private (stepping forward): "Yes, sir."

Officer (handing him a bugle): "Blow Taps."

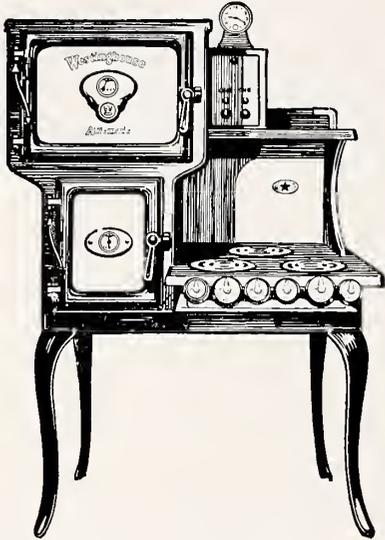

Private: "Oh—er—I thought you said expert burglar."

Mother: "That young man you are engaged to is a bad egg."

Daughter: "I know he is, that's the reason that I'm afraid to drop him."

The new and unusual—that sparkling reality which is known as the life of each school year—is caught and held forever within the pages of Bureau built annuals. The ability to assist in making permanent such delightful bits of class spontaneity rests in an organization of creative artists guided by some 17 years of College Annual work, which experience is the knowledge of balance and taste and the fitness of doing things well. In the finest year books of American Colleges the sincerity and genuineness of Bureau Engraving quality instantly impresses one. They are class records that will live forever.
